

Now What? A Nonprofit Community Dialogue in Response to the Economic Crisis

The Long Island Center for Nonprofit Leadership and the Long Island Funders Committee* invite you to participate in an open and creative dialogue about tough times and hard choices.

The current economic crisis is taking its toll on funders and nonprofits alike. How can the nonprofit community best respond to this new and emerging reality for organizations on Long Island? Let's bring our strengths, vulnerabilities, and capacity to the table and discover creative ways to work together to weather the storm and identify opportunities to meet the needs of Long Island.

Join us for breakfast and discussion at the following community forums from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

January 21, 2009 Riverhead Free Library, 330 Court Street, Riverhead, NY

January 27, 2009 Long Island Community Foundation, at Nassau Hall, 1864
Muttontown Road, Syosset, NY

February 2, 2009 Citibank Conference Center, 1 Rexcop Plaza/East Tower, Hempstead Turnpike, Uniondale, NY

*Long Island Funders Committee: Bank of America, Bethpage Federal Credit Union, Citibank, the Hagedorn Foundation, JPMorgan Chase Foundation, the Long Island Fund for Women and Girls, Long Island Community Foundation, Rauch Foundation, Roslyn Savings Foundation, and Sandy River Charitable Foundation