Summit 2009:

The Future of Nonprofits – A Brave and New World

The Long Island Center for Nonprofit Leadership invites sponsorships for its June 3, 2009 Nonprofit Summit.

Summit 2009 is the most comprehensive gathering of Long Island's nonprofit sector, including arts, health and human service, and environmental organizations.

This full-day conference program features keynotes from two nationally recognized figures in the nonprofit world, Peter Brinckerhoff and Kim Klein. Participants will have the opportunity to attend breakfast discussion groups (prior to the conference) facilitated by consultants in governance, strategic planning, financial management, and staff development. There will be morning and afternoon breakout sessions led by well known nonprofit leaders and networking opportunities throughout the day.

Gold level sponsor – $5,000.00

Gold level sponsor's corporate banner will be prominently displayed at the conference venue. In addition, gold level sponsors will receive 10 free tickets to the conference, be recognized in all printed materials and on the Center and conference websites, and will have a table to display materials.

Silver level sponsors – $2,500.00

Silver level sponsors will receive 5 free tickets to the conference, be recognized in all printed materials and on the Center and conference websites, and will have a table to display materials.

Bronze level sponsors – $1,000.00

Bronze level sponsors will receive 2 free tickets to the conference, be recognized in all printed materials and on the Center and conference websites.
