

Dads on Duty

Raising a child as a single parent is rewarding and also complicated.

Whether you are a custodial or non-custodial dad, parenting provides many challenges: communication, discipline, balancing work and family, financial stress, or parenting with an ex-partner.

The “Dads on Duty” program was created especially for you.

Please join us and meet other single dads who understand what you are going through and can be a valuable source of support.

We hope to see you there!!
