Theatre Series

With power, passion, a dynamic vibrato for emphasis on the swing tunes, and a lemon twist for tartness on the torch songs, she's pretty much a one-woman phenomenon.

—Rex Reed

AN EVENING WITH LUCIE ARNAZ

Musical Director, Ron Abel

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 8:00 P.M.
CONCERT HALL

The PAC is thrilled to welcome this powerhouse performer of song and pure showbiz savvy to our intimate Concert Hall for an evening of diverse and supremely satisfying music that touches on the key points of her life...and ours. ARTURO O'FARRILL AND THE AFRO-LATIN JAZZ ORCHESTRA

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 1, 8:00 P.M.
CONCERT HALL

Harkening back to the days when mambo was king, Arturo O'Farrill and the Afro-Latin Jazz Orchestra brings the big band power of his 18-piece orchestra to the PAC. See complete description in Symphony Space Series.

FOLK CONCERT: OUTLAWS, DEATH, AND TARNISHED LOVE!

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 7:30 P.M.
CONCERT HALL

Award-winning singer Nyssa Brown and Adelphi Assistant Professor of Music Georgia Newlin summon visions of outlaws, pioneers, farmers, and other iconic American characters. They recreate the music and mood of an old saloon, swarming with debauchery and grittiness, or the melancholy of mending a broken heart in the pitch black of an old railroad car.

This is the finest band I have ever performed with in my life. They make me feel as if I have returned to Cuba.

—Bebo Valdés

ADELPHI JAZZ ENSEMBLE

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 10, 7:30 P.M.
TUESDAY, MAY 10, 7:30 P.M.
CONCERT HALL

According to Wynton Marsalis, jazz is music that swings. According to Pat Metheny, jazz is not the music of Kenny G. According to the Adelphi Jazz Ensemble, you'll know jazz when you hear it, and you will hear it in these popular winter and spring concerts when this talented student ensemble, led by Dave Lobenstein, offers an exciting blend of classic jazz arrangements by such composers as Coltrane, Davis, Ellington, and Parker. It's swinging, it's cool, it's unmistakably jazz.

THE THALIA FOLLIES: A POLITICAL CABARET

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 24, 2:00 P.M.
CONCERT HALL

Just in time for this season's elections, New York City's only political cabaret comes to Adelphi University for an evening of songs, sketches, and satire on all the issues we hold dear and a few that will hit very close to home for Long Islanders! Created by Symphony Space's Artistic Director Isaiah Sheffer and Martin Sage, each performance is original, includes special guests, and is guaranteed to get you talking and laughing.

SELECTED SHORTS HOSTED BY ISAIAH SHEFFER

SUNDAY, JANUARY 30, 3:00 P.M.
CONCERT HALL

Don't miss this popular hit direct from Symphony Space: Selected Shorts is an award-winning, Public Radio program featuring readings of spellbinding short stories by established and emerging writers, which take on a new life when performed by stars of the stage and screen. Recorded for broadcast on Public Radio International from Adelphi and hosted by Isaiah Sheffer, this promises to be a highlight of the PAC season.

ARTURO O'FARRILL AND THE AFRO-LATIN JAZZ ORCHESTRA

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 1, 8:00 P.M.
CONCERT HALL

Harkening back to the days when mambo was king, Arturo O'Farrill and the Afro-Latin Jazz Orchestra brings the power of the big band to the infectious rhythms of Latin jazz greats including Machito, Tito Puente, Mario Bauza, and O'Farrill's father, Chico. A prominent figure of the Afro-Cuban jazz movement, O'Farrill earned a Grammy for "Best Latin Jazz Album" in 2008. He has an impressive résumé of collaborations with a wide spectrum of artists including Dizzy Gillespie, Steve Turre, Wynton Marsalis, and Harry Belafonte.

See page 17.

DAN ZANES AND FRIENDS

SATURDAY, MARCH 26, 11:00 A.M.
CONCERT HALL

Dan Zanes' rootsy but rockin' back-porch approach to music has made him a super star among kids. He's the ringmaster, introducing new songs and reconnecting people to songs that have always been there, and still are—it's just that people forgot about them—but if you have kids you already know this. Dan Zanes and Friends are probably on heavy rotation in your CD player. Zanes' entertaining sampler of offbeat, all-embracing musical and performance styles has garnered him many accolades including a Grammy and multiple Parents' Choice Awards. We are thrilled to bring Dan Zanes and Friends to the PAC Concert Hall!

KNICK-KNACK PADDY WHACK! A SING-ALONG FAMILY FOLK CONCERT

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 11:00 A.M.

BUDDHA IN HIS OWN WORDS

Written and Performed by Evan Brenner
WEDNESDAY, MARCH 30, 7:30 P.M.
CONCERT HALL

Buddha In His Own Words is a unique chance to encounter one of history's great minds and experience his journey in a most remarkable, engaging, and surprisingly humorous way. Prince Siddhartha's journey to Buddha stands among the great archetypal adventure stories: robust, surprising, immediate, and deeply hopeful. Framed in a most surprising and personal context, Buddha In His Own Words brings to the stage these authentic texts to enact the extraordinary life of a special man.

THE TRIANGLE FIRE PROJECT

Department of Theatre
THURSDAY, APRIL 7, 7:30 P.M.
THURSDAY, APRIL 14, 7:30 P.M.
THURSDAY, APRIL 21, 7:30 P.M.
BLACK BOX THEATRE

The 1911 Triangle Shirtwaist Factory fire near Washington Square in Lower Manhattan was the worst workplace disaster in American history prior to 9/11. The 146 victims of the fire were never forgotten and people everywhere vowed to make workplaces safer and more humane. The Triangle Fire Project is a multimedia theatrical collaboration that will examine people whose lives were forever changed and the rippling impact of this historical event on labor and immigration reforms that followed.

Aside from the smooth illusions, I most enjoyed Grow's explanations of how a con works, painting familiar New York street scenes and populating them with cons he has met and been conned by.

Lap Policy

For our family friendly performances, children under the age of three may attend free of charge, if they sit on an adult's lap (one child per lap). Children three and over require a ticket.

Accessible Seating

All performance spaces are accessible and available by advance reservation—please notify the Box Office at the time of purchase if you require special seating; we will be more than happy to accommodate you.

Should you require disability accommodations, please email DSS@adelphi.edu, giving notice of 72 hours before the event. Should you require ASL interpreting, seven days' notice is required. Ask for details at the Box Office.

Hearing Assistance

All performance venues are equipped with listening assistance devices. Ask for details at the Box Office.
