School of Social Work Mission and Program Goals

Mission of the Adelphi University School of Social Work

The Adelphi University School of Social Work prepares graduates to practice ethically and effectively in diverse cultural and social contexts upon entering the profession and throughout their careers. MSW Criteria and Admission Process:

The MSW program is offered at the main Garden City campus and at each of the three extension centers in Manhattan, Hauppauge and Hudson Valley. Students may take foundation year courses at SUNY Orange Community College Middletown campus coordinated through the Hudson Valley campus. The admissions standards and procedures are identical at all four sites. The admissions office, headed by the Director of Outreach, Enrollment and Professional Advisement, is responsible for reading all applications in consultation with the Admissions Committee which is comprised of faculty members. Admission decisions are based on academic record, life and work experience most often including paid or volunteer human service experience, and evidence of commitment and motivation to social work practice.

Applicants and potential applicants often attend information sessions and open house events at one of our campus centers prior to submitting their application for admission. At these meetings the academic program, tuition and financial aid information and criteria and process for admission is reviewed and applicants may be screened for meeting eligibility.

The Application Process
The University utilizes an online application system for all applications and supplemental materials. The Office of Graduate Admissions first reviews all applications for processing and submitting to the School of Social Work for review. Once all required materials have been received, the Office of Graduate Admissions sends the file for review by the School of Social Work.

All applicants are required to submit to the Adelphi University Graduate Admissions Office:

- a graduate application
- $50.00 application fee
- an official transcript from all institutions that they attended with evidence of completion of a bachelor’s degree
- a minimum of two professional letters of reference
- a graduate essay which asks students to detail their reasons for choosing social work as a course of study and career, evidence of their commitment and motivation to study social work, any obstacles or challenges they may anticipate in pursuing the MSW degree, and specific areas of practice or social problems that are of particular interest to them
- International students are required submit official college or university records to the Adelphi Office of University Admissions and must include:
  - Official transcript(s) in their native language and one set translated into English
  - Students must have earned the equivalency of a four-year bachelor’s degree
  - Official TOEFL/IELTS scores are required to show English language proficiency
Requirements for Admission

 Requirements for admission to the School of Social Work graduate programs are based on prior academic performance, values that are congruent with the social work profession, and paid and/or volunteer human service experience.

Admission requirements include:

- International students are required to have a baccalaureate degree that has been evaluated by a United States program affirming a degree equivalent to a U.S. Baccalaureate degree.
- A minimum TOEFL score of 585 or higher or an IELTS score of 6.5 or higher for international students.

  - Advanced Standing – one letter of reference must be from a faculty field advisor or field instruction and one letter from a faculty member preferred.

  - Post Master’s Certificate in Addictions – requires a master’s degree.
  - Post Master’s Certificate in Bilingual Social Work – requires either a provisional or permanent NYS school social work certificate in addition to a Master’s in Social Work.
- Post Master’s Certificate in Human Resources – requires a Master’s in Social Work.
- Post Master’s Certificate in Military Trauma – requires a master’s or doctoral degree.

Non-degree students are permitted to enroll in up to 12 credits in the School of Social Work. To register for courses as a non-degree student, a non-degree application must be completed, along with the nonrefundable application fee of $50. Additionally applicants must submit a transcript showing proof of a baccalaureate degree. Non-degree registration and advisement is provided by the Director of Outreach, Enrollment and Professional Advisement.

Admission Decisions

While the undergraduate degree and GPA provide an assessment of the applicant’s intellectual capacity, additional criteria for admission includes demonstration of personal characteristics and qualifications that relate to successful professional performance. Review of each applicant’s letters of recommendation, essay, and application yields descriptive data that is compared with the values and ethics presented in the NASW Code of Ethics. The graduate essay is an integral component of the application and is an important factor in reviewing the applicant for admission into the program. It allows the applicant the opportunity to communicate their experiences in social work, social problems they have knowledge of or are concerned about and how social work can address these problems. In addition to their expectations of graduate study, any difficulty they anticipate as well as their background and experiences that have led them to want to become a social worker and their professional goals are shared in the essay.

Completed files are submitted to the Director of Outreach, Enrollment and Professional Advisement for review and decision on the application. Applications that do not contain a cumulative grade point average (GPA) below a 3.0, or for which there may be questions regarding the graduate essay or recommendations letters, are referred for review by the Admissions Committee.

The Admissions Committee is chaired by the Director of Outreach, Enrollment and Professional Advisement. Members include three faculty members assigned each academic year by the Dean of the School of Social Work.

The Committee reserves the right to request a personal interview by either the Director at the site or one or members of the Admissions Committee.

Applications are reviewed and decisions are made in the following three categories:
- degree candidate (DC)
- provisional student (P-2)
- Rejected

These decision categories are described below in terms of evaluation criteria and specific expectations and procedures.

Degree Candidate (DC): For students who meet the academic standards, have evidence of personal and professional motivation and commitment, and present a complete and impressive application, the student is accepted as a degree candidate. Students may be accepted for special programs based on specific criteria and qualifications. See sections on MSW Special Programs.

Provisional Student (P-2): For students who demonstrate the potential for academic and other standards, but do not meet all the criteria for acceptance, the student is accepted as a provisional student. Students accepted provisionally are advised to take a maximum of six credits in their first semester, required to earn a minimum grade of “B” in each course completed. The student’s progress is reviewed throughout the semester for professional standards and academic performance. If the provisional student does not meet the above criteria, they are dismissed from the program after the first semester. If the provisional student successfully meets the criteria, the student is granted degree candidacy status and is permitted to continue in the program. Students accepted as provisional students do not begin their field work until their status is converted to degree candidacy. All provisional students are advised by the Director of Student Engagement and Academic Success and monitored throughout their provisional semester.

Rejected Student: For students who do not meet the academic and other standards, the admission decision is reject.

Once an admission decision is made, the file with the decision is sent electronically to the Office of Graduate Admissions at the University. A letter is sent from the Office of Graduate Admissions indicating the application decision and, if applicable, any conditions or criteria necessary for full admission. Specifically, whether the accepted applicant is admitted provisionally.

MSW Special Programs

Students are evaluated for special programs based on their qualifications and the criteria as listed. Special programs include the One Year Residency (OYR), Advanced Standing and Hybrid Low Residency programs (LRP).

One Year Residency (OYR)

The OYR program is designed for human service workers who have three or more of the last five years of social work related experience under the supervision of a social worker. As a result of the student’s social work related employment experience, OYR students are expected to complete one 900 hour field placement in the advanced year rather than the traditional mode of two 600 hour field placements in two years. In addition, they must take a foundation year OYR seminar (4 credit classroom course) as well as be working in the field concurrently with their foundation year classes. The student’s employer must agree to provide a 900 hour employment based field placement under LMSW or LCSW supervision. Such placement experience must have separate and distinct duties from the student’s day to day responsibilities. Applicants to this program must submit documentation verifying years of employment, supervisory requirements met and employer agreement to providing a field placement. The application will follow all other University and School processes in regard to processing the final decision and notifying the applicant.
Advanced Standing

The 32-credit Advanced Standing program is available only to graduates of CSWE-accredited baccalaureate social work programs who have earned the degree within the last five years. In addition to meeting all admission requirements for the MSW program, applicants must also have successfully completed the undergraduate curriculum and field experience.

Candidates for this program must submit one letter of recommendation from their field advisor and/or instructor addressing the applicant’s practice behaviors and core competencies in addition to their personal maturity, scholarship, interpersonal skills and relevant experience and professional promise. A faculty recommendation is the preferred second professional letter of recommendation. Applicants who earned a foreign BSW degree are asked to have their credentials reviewed by the Council on Social Work Education’s International Social Work Degree Recognition and Evaluation Services (www.cswe.org/CenterInitiatives/22207.aspx) and submit such evaluation as supplemental application material. The application will follow all other University and School processes in regard to processing the final decision and notifying the applicant.

BSW graduates whose application for Advanced Standing does not meet admission’s criteria and are consequently rejected from the Advanced Standing program, may elect to apply to the full MSW program. If the applicant is accepted to the MSW program, the Director of Outreach, Enrollment and Professional Advisement (in consultation with the student) may request a course waiver in accordance with the School's course waiver policy.

Hybrid Low Residency Program

The Hybrid Low Residency Program is a cohort-based, part-time MSW program that combines online and campus based instruction. Students participate in 5-6 campus visits over their 3 years of study and take a combination of campus-based intensive and online courses during the degree program. Field instruction is arranged near their home community. Admissions require applicants to this program to complete an assessment survey. The survey questions assess applicant readiness to learn in an online environment, asking if they have ever taken an online course and their experience in doing so, computer access and capacity, and times that they are most available in their daily schedule for synchronous online courses. Applicants are also required to participate in an interview with the director of the program, one or more faculty from the Admissions Committee, the Director of Outreach, Enrollment and Professional Advisement, and a member of the field department.

Transfer Credits

If you’ve taken a graduate course in a CSWE accredited graduate program or an accredited graduate program in an allied field, similar to an Adelphi social work course, you may request a transfer of credit. The course must have been taken within five years of matriculation, with a grade of B or better. The School of Social Work will consider up to 12 credits for transfer.

To make a request, submit the following to our Office of Graduate Admissions:
• official transcript
• course description
• course outline
• bibliography

The Director of Outreach, Enrollment and Professional Advisement, in consultation with the sequence chair, will assess if your course corresponds to an existing Adelphi course. If the graduate credit is approved for transfer, you do not have to take another course in its place. A place-out exam may be required at the discretion of the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs. If the course was counted toward a baccalaureate degree, it cannot be used for transfer credit. Only courses completed for graduate credit may be transferred.

Course Waivers

Course waivers are granted selectively on an individual basis. If you’ve taken an undergraduate course similar to an Adelphi social work course, you may request a course waiver. The course must have been taken within five years of matriculation, with a grade of B or better and you must submit the following to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs:

• transcript
• course description
• course outline
• bibliography

The associate dean for academic programs and director of the MSW program, in consultation with the sequence chair, will assess if your course corresponds to the Adelphi course. If the course does correspond, you will then be required to take a place-out exam. If you pass the exam with a grade of B or better—the course is waived, and you must take another course in its place. Graduate credit is not granted for undergraduate courses.

Course Credit for Life Experience or Previous Work Experience

The policy of the School of Social Work prohibits the transfer of any academic credits or field hours for prior work or life experience into the graduate program. Students and other constituents are apprised of this policy in the Social Work Student Handbook and in the University Bulletin; Social Work: Graduate; Transfer Credits.

PROFESSIONAL AND ACADEMIC ADVISING

All graduate students are assigned an advisor when they enter the program. Every student receives advisement throughout their academic program. The advisor is responsible for answering academic as well as professional questions, program planning, course approval, field education planning and supervision, life and career goals, and any other related advisement tasks. The School of Social Work emphasizes a broad-based approach to advisement that covers more than decision making around classes, field placements and professional career choices; it also touches on maximizing potential, developing a professional self and raising the standard of ethical and sound practice.
When students first enter the program, they register and receive advisement from an admissions officer who is familiar with the academic program as well as the professional practice of social work. On the main campus in Garden City, this may be the Director of Outreach, Enrollment and Professional Advisement or one of the admissions staff specialists. At the extension centers, the advisement is conducted by the Director of the site, an outreach coordinator, or a student affairs coordinator.

After the initial advisement and registration session(s), the student is assigned an advisor. If the student is entering field, a faculty field liaison is assigned who serves as academic advisor as well as liaison to the field placement. If the student is not entering field, studying as a part-time student, taking academic classes only without field and practice, then the advisor is not a field liaison. All advisors are faculty members, full-time or part-time, or social work administrators. Advisor assignments are made according to the student’s status and the faculty workload. New advisor assignments are made each year. This accommodates the student’s field placement, the student’s program, and introduces the student to a new advisor each year. Faculty field liaisons are assigned according to the student’s field placement, based on the agency, its location, and the student’s area of interest. Advisors are assigned in the fall and spring entry terms. Students can access their assigned advisor information in the student portal account in e-campus. Students assigned faculty field liaisons are informed of their advisor via email and e-campus at the beginning of the semester in which they start field placement.

In the Hybrid MSW program, advising is structured similarly to the face to face MSW program. Students are assigned a faculty member or administrator as their academic advisor. That advisor will assist students in scheduling their courses. In the Hybrid MSW program students will meet with their advisor via phone or Google hangout to discuss their course selections. Students are able to log into their student portal (CLASS) and make their course selections each term. Their assigned advisor must review the course selections and approve before the student is able to register. Students enrolled in the Hybrid Program will also have the opportunity for face to face advisement during their residency periods.

All new students to the Hybrid MSW are required to attend a mandatory orientation to the program during their first residency. This orientation provides students with an overview of the University, the School of Social Work and University services. The orientation is coordinated by the Hybrid MSW Program Director. The orientation provides students with a detailed review of the School’s mission, graduate curriculum, core competencies and associated practice behaviors and technology including Moodle, CLASS and email. Administrative staff members review the academic integrity and plagiarism policies of the school, NASW Code of Ethics and ethical standards and responsibilities required of social workers. Information about advisement, academic support services including the writing center, Student Access Office, counseling services and the learning center are provided to the students. Information about the Graduate Student Association, school events and networking opportunities are also shared with the students. Finally, all students are given information about the required Recitation Social Work Orientation taken in the first semester of study.
Every student receives advisement throughout their academic program. The advisor is responsible for addressing academic as well as professional advisement concerns, including program planning, course approval, field education planning and supervision, life and career goals, and any other related advisement tasks. The School of Social Work emphasizes a broad-based approach to advisement that covers more than decision making around classes, field placements and professional career choices; it also touches on maximizing potential, developing a professional self and raising the standard of ethical and sound practice.

When students first enter the program, they register and receive advisement from the Director of Outreach, Enrollment and Professional Advisement, who is familiar with the academic program as well as the professional practice of social work.

After the initial advisement and registration session(s), the student is assigned an academic advisor. The academic advisor to the students in the LRP Hybrid program is the Director of the Hybrid MSW Program.

When the student enters field, a designated faculty field liaison is assigned who serves as academic advisor as well as liaison to the field placement. All students enrolled in the LRP Hybrid Program are assigned to their faculty field liaison who facilitates the Integrative Field Seminar concurrently with the field placement. Students can access their assigned advisor information in the student portal account in e-campus. Student's assigned faculty field liaisons are informed of their advisor via email and e-campus at the beginning of the semester in which they start field placement.

The Faculty Field Liaison's carry the responsibility for helping the student, the field instructor and the agency to meet the educational objectives established for the student's field experience. Additionally, Faculty Field Liaisons carry academic advising responsibility for the students assigned to them in the field practicum. Liaisons also meet at least once each semester with the student's field instructor at the agency either in person or via Google hangout. Liaisons are expected to meet with the student during the first two-four weeks of the semester in which they begin field. Liaisons also meet at least once each semester with the student's field instructor at the agency or via Google hangout. They maintain periodic, and as needed contact with the students and field instructors by email and phone. Students submit monthly statistics report and process recordings to their faculty field liaisons throughout the semester for their review.

Orientation
All new students are required to attend a mandatory orientation to the graduate program. This orientation provides students with an overview of the University, the School of Social Work and University services. The orientation is coordinated by the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs and MSW Program Director, the Director of Student Engagement and Academic Success and the Director of Field Education. Each center holds an orientation covering the same materials coordinated by the Center Director, Student Affairs Coordinator and Assistant Director of Field Education. The orientation provides students with a detailed review of the School’s mission, graduate curriculum, core competencies and associated practice behaviors and technology including Moodle, CLASS and email. Administrative staff review the academic integrity and plagiarism policies of the school, NASW Code of Ethics and ethical standards and responsibilities required of social workers. Information about advisement, academic support services including the writing center, Access Services, counseling services and the learning center are provided to the students. Information about the Graduate Student Association, school events and networking opportunities are also shared with the students. Finally, all students are given information about the required Recitation Social Work Orientation taken in the first semester of study.

Registration
Students may enroll for non-matriculated study. Up to twelve credits may be taken as a non-matriculated student and field and practice courses are not available for enrollment. The Director of Outreach, Enrollment and Professional Advisement enrolls and advises any student registered as a non-degree seeking candidate. Non-degree seeking candidates participate new student orientation and are also required to enroll in the required Recitation Social Work Orientation in the first semester of study.

Students receive a copy of the MSW Course Planning Worksheet that lists all course requirements with pre-requisites, co-requisites and course sequences. This planning guide can be found in the Student Handbook. It is also online and available in print. Courses in the graduate program are taken sequentially and some courses are taken as a requisite. Advisors and students alike must be familiar with the importance of following the planning worksheet to ensure that all requirements are met and courses are taken in proper sequence. The Course Planning Worksheet is used in conjunction with the program paths to support students in planning their schedules. Not all courses are offered in every semester. These guides are especially helpful in the advisement process as they individualize for students their course choices and their plans of study. For instance, students who are following a part-time program path with summer classes can plan ahead and anticipate their schedules.

The School of Social Work follows the registration procedures established by the university. Students plan and register for their next semester classes at about the midpoint of the preceding semester. Registration is completed online and requires advisor approval for all course choices. Open planning is scheduled to reserve time for a review of their current academic grades and performance. Students are encouraged to keep in contact with their advisor throughout the semester for questions and support as needed and to discuss their expectations for the academic program, professional preparation and field education opportunities. Performance in the classroom, other related activities and field instruction are some of the areas that advisors focus on.

Classroom teachers who observe any problems including attendance, unethical behavior or poor academic work contact the student’s advisor and/or the Office of Academic Affairs. In consultation with the advisor, the professor, the Director of Student Engagement and Academic Success and if the student attends one of the extension centers, the director or the student affairs coordinator at the center, the student is offered counseling, writing assistance, peer or other tutoring, or other support services as indicated. A strong emphasis is placed on coordinating resources and supports to assist students who are at risk.
MSW PROGRAM OF STUDY

The Master of Social Work (M.S.W.) program offers the preparation you need for advanced professional social work practice. Our foundation curriculum provides the knowledge, skills, values and ethics essential to all forms and levels of generalist social work practice. In your advanced year, you will complete a concentration in contemporary, direct practice—and prepare to be an advanced social work practitioner using sophisticated clinical skills in work with individuals, small groups, families and couples.

Organization and Structure of the Master of Social Work Curriculum

All students in the foundation year of the Adelphi University M.S.W. degree program are required to take the same ten courses. Eight of the ten are academic courses, and two are supervised field internships where you apply theories learned in class to direct practice with clients. The ten required foundation courses are distributed as follows:

- two on social welfare policy
- two on theories of human behavior
- two on theories of social work practice
- one about diversity, oppression and cultural influences in social work practice
- one in methods of empirical research
- two supervised field internships

In the advanced year of the Master of Social Work program, all students must complete ten courses, two of which are supervised field internships. The eight remaining second-year courses are distributed as follows:

- two courses in advanced social work practice
- one course in assessment and diagnosis from a social work perspective
- one course in advanced social work research
- one course in organizational context for professional practice
- one elective integrative seminar course
- two additional elective courses
- two supervised field internships

The Role of Field Education

Field education plays a pivotal role in student education. Through internships in social service settings, students are provided with opportunities to apply knowledge learned in the classroom experience to social work practice with diverse populations in a broad range of agencies. Students develop professional skills and competence in practice during the course of their internships in working with people and communities. Students learn to bring their humanity and authenticity to their practice, to act with professional courage, and to develop a vision about making a contribution toward the amelioration of the significant social problems that face our society.

Field education is viewed as a unique partnership between the School and the agencies with which it affiliates. Through ongoing communication, the agencies and faculty field liaisons work towards the development of a shared educational philosophy and standards in designing and implementing a sound educational program for students. A Field Educational Manual is available online, and we encourage students to consult the Manual regarding field work policies, practices, program options and important information to guide you through your field work experiences.

For more information about the Field Education component of the program see the MSW field manual which is located online and on the field education Moodle shell.

Professional Continuing Education

Adelphi University’s School of Social Work supports advanced professional development and continuing education in the field of behavioral health through our offering of post master’s certificate programs that allow students to advance their specialization within social work.

Post Master’s Certificate in Advanced Trauma Studies and Treatment

This certificate comprises a two-semester course (84 hours and 25 NYSED continuing education credits) designed for the experienced practitioner to engage in a small supportive and reflective community to advance their skills and competences related to the role of trauma in practice settings. This certificate is offered at the Garden City campus.

Highlights include hands-on skills training in evidence-based treatment approaches such as:

- Self-Injury: A cutting edge approach to assessment
- The Community Reinforcement Approach and Family Training (CRAFT) – 2 day training
- Trauma Focused-CBT Training- 2 day training
- The Safe Center Site Visit
- Sensorimotor Psychotherapy
- Seeking Safety

Post Master’s Certificate in Addictions

This certificate offers Master level professionals in social work and related behavioral health fields the opportunity to complete the 350 clock hour educational requirement to apply for the NYS OASAS credential in Alcoholism and Substance Abuse Counseling (CASAC-T). This certificate is offered at the Garden City, Manhattan and Hudson Valley campuses.

Students have the opportunity to select one of two options: a 45 clock hour program (PAC 1) or an 85 clock hour (PAC 2). Students who have already completed an elective in substance use disorder during their graduate training select PAC 1. Postgraduate students in the field of mental health looking to fulfill the NYS OASAS 85 clock hour requirement for Section 1 training, or are looking for a more expansive experience combing in-class training with workshops and blended online coursework select PAC 2.

The postgraduate addictions certificate (PAC) offers a sequential program to enhance the theoretical and clinical knowledge of treatment of adolescents, adults and their families coping with addictive disorder. PAC will promote the psychodynamic understanding of current theoretical and practical approaches to assessment and treatment of substance use disorder. A series of leading experts from the addictions field will discuss the neurobiology of addiction, psycho-pharmacology, differential diagnostic assessment, motivational interviewing, and empirically-based evidence treatment approaches with adolescents and adults across a broad spectrum of culturally diverse populations. Topics will incorporate an integrated approach to substance use disorder and mental health comorbidity including the behavioral addictions: sex, gambling, and tobacco use. The course will synthesize lecture, case presentation, and classroom discussion.

Advanced year students enrolled in SWK 727 Social Work Practice in the Prevention and Treatment of Substance Abuse and Field Hours while placed in a substance abuse addictions and treatment field agency, may earn hours toward the educational and experiential requirements for the CASAC Trainee Certificate.

SWK 0404-722 Organizational Context for Professional Practice is applied toward the certificate and students then take four courses through the School of Business. Students may apply to the program during their advanced year of study. If accepted to the program, students may take HRM (0208) 765 – Developing World Class Human Resources as one of their three electives in the M.S.W. program. Note: HRM (0208) 765 – does not meet the “I” designation required for social work students. This certificate is offered at the Garden City campus.

Human Resource Management Certificate Program

Each candidate for the ACHR must complete all course requirements with a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0. Students who have taken MGT 561 or HRM 765 at Adelphi within the prior five years may apply the credits for those courses to fulfill the requirements for the ACHR. Students who have taken undergraduate courses in organizational behavior or organizational theory may request that the requirement for MGT 561 be replaced with either BUS (0204) 689 - Negotiation for the Business Professional or MGT (0210) 791 - Management Styles And Team Building instead.

For Graduate Students in Other Adelphi Programs

Effective human resource management can enhance organizational performance across industries and professions. The Robert B. Willumstad School of Business and other professional schools at Adelphi have developed a variety of programs that allow students who are enrolled in other professional schools to acquire human resource expertise.

School of Social Work: Students currently enrolled in the MSW program who are interested in earning the ACHR must apply to the Robert B. Willumstad School of Business prior to beginning the courses. If accepted, they may apply the credits for SWK (0404) 722 - Organization Context For Professional Practice to fulfill the MGT 561 requirement.

PLANNING GUIDELINES FOR THE MSW PROGRAM

When planning your academic program for completion of M.S.W. degree requirements, please follow the registration policies and procedures below. Students and advisers must make certain that pre-requisite and/or co-requisite requirements are met. Courses must be taken in their proper sequence (see Program Planning Worksheet).

Students must complete degree requirements within four years from the semester in which they first matriculated.

All foundation level courses must be taken before starting any advanced courses.

If a student earns a failing grade in any foundation level course (this includes all field courses), a student may not proceed to advanced level course work. If a student has an incomplete grade in any foundation level course (this includes all field courses), the incomplete must be resolved prior to entering the advanced level of course work.

Students in Field Placement register for Section 01 of their field course.

Students must take their practice courses and field instruction together as co-requisites.

Foundation Year students take SWK 520 with Field Instruction I (SWK 690 or 693 Extended) and SWK 521 with Field Instruction II (SWK 691 or 694 Extended).

Advanced Year students take SWK 780 or SWK 782 with Field Instruction III (SWK 790 or 778 Extended), and SWK 782 or SWK 780 with Field Instruction IV (SWK 791 or 779 Extended).

Advanced year elective courses are offered in the fall, spring, and summer semesters. Students may not take electives in their foundation year.

SWK 710 is taken in the student’s advanced year of study and must be taken at the Garden City campus only.

Advanced year MSW students may choose one of four OPTIONAL specializations: Children and Families; Health Across the Life Course; Mental Health, Substance Abuse, and Trauma in Context; or Human Service Management and Organizational Leadership.

MSW students will be required to take three (3) electives; one must be the integrative designation, in their advanced year towards the completion of the MSW degree.

Whether a student chooses to specialize or not, of the three electives that all MSW students select, one elective course must be an “integrative” (“I”) course.
An integrative course (an “I” designated course) supports a graduate MSW student’s capacity to synthesize all aspects of the social work curriculum – theory, practice, policy and research – within a coherent framework of understanding, inquiry, analysis and knowledge development.

All MSW students must take SWK 780 and SWK 782 as the advanced year direct practice courses. Students may take SWK 780 or SWK 782 in either semester of the advanced year concurrent with co-requisite field courses.

Students may NOT take 780 and 782 in the same semester.

MSW students at extension centers (Manhattan, Hauppauge and Hudson Valley) will be required to take SWK 710 (Social Work Assessment and Diagnosis) in residence at the Garden City Campus.

OYR students must register for SWK 601 (the OYR Professional Seminar) concurrent with Foundations of Social Work Practice I (SWK 520).

OYR students may begin field instruction only after completing all foundation-level classes (SWK 500 courses). OYR students in field instruction for 30 hours per week register for SWK 796 in the fall and SWK 797 in the spring. OYR students in field instruction for 21 hours per week in the fall/spring and 24 hours per week in the summer, register for SWK 790 in the fall, SWK 791 in the spring, and SWK 792 in the summer. OYR students in field instruction for 15 hours per week in the fall/spring/summer/fall semesters, register for SWK 790 in the summer semester of advanced year courses, SWK 791 in the fall, SWK 792 in the spring and SWK 689 in the following summer term.

Students should be certain that all degree requirements are being met and that courses are properly sequenced. An error in scheduling could delay graduation and result in additional tuition costs.

All students in the advanced year complete a concentration in advanced contemporary direct practice.

SWK 710, 722, 758, 780, 782 and field instruction are concentration courses.

Note: Registration policies and procedures are subject to change.

OPTIONAL ADVANCED YEAR MSW SPECIALIZATIONS

Children and Families

This Specialization prepares students for individual, family and group practice to promote the wellbeing of families and children. Students will develop an advanced understanding of a range of theories linked with policy, practice and advocacy, allowing for effective planning, implementation and evaluation.
The Specialization draws from an array of related fields of practice, including child welfare, child development, school social work, family treatment, juvenile justice, youth services and community development, and prepares students for advanced work in a range of roles, settings and family systems. This organized program of study emphasizes the intersection of social, environmental and economic contexts in the lives of children and families, as well as in the work of professionals and their organizations.

Students interested in completing the specialization in Children and Families must select three elective courses from the list below, at least one of which must be an integrative course with an “I” designation. Students are also required to select a Children and Families related field placement in the advanced year of MSW study.

Children and Families Electives

SWK 728: Social Work with Children and Adolescents

Health Across the Life Course

“Health is a state of complete physical, mental and social well-being and not merely the absence of disease or infirmity.” – WHO Definition of Health*

This specialization provides advanced-year knowledge applicable to working across a wide range of settings, populations and fields of practice within the domain of health social work. Central to the conceptualization of the specialization is a life course perspective to prepare students to consider intersecting influences of historical, political, cultural, social, environmental and biological contexts on the experience of health, illness and disability at the level of individuals and communities. Courses in the specialization introduce relevant theories (e.g. human development, life course, health behaviors, social determinants of health, stress and coping) and research relevant to social work practice from a health perspective, with an emphasis on supporting students to attain competencies to integrate evidence-informed interventions, programs, and policies into their advanced year work.

Students interested in completing the specialization in Health Across the Life Course must select three elective courses from the list below, at least one of which must be an integrative course. Students are also required to select a health-related field placement in the advanced year of MSW study.
Health Across the Life Course Electives

SWK 721: Practice in End of Life Care
SWK 729: Social Work with Older Adults (I)
SWK 752: Stress, Crisis, Trauma and Coping (I)
SWK 736: Contemporary Social Work: An Integrative Approach (I)

IMPORTANT: Please note not all courses listed below are offered every semester.

Mental Health, Substance Abuse, and Trauma in Context

This specialization provides students with an advanced understanding of the multiple factors that influence mental health and wellness, substance abuse, and trauma reactions. Students will develop advanced social work knowledge and skills necessary to assess, select interventions, advocate, and work with diverse, sometimes marginalized and stigmatized groups. Students will be able to select from a variety of courses that offer understanding of current knowledge that informs practice with specific populations and/or situations of individuals, families, groups and communities. Theories and their application to evidenced-based practice will be discussed. The importance of context in creating, defining, and addressing human needs and problems is emphasized.

Students interested in completing the specialization in Mental Health, Substance Abuse, and Trauma in Context must select three elective courses from the list below, at least one of which must be an integrative course. Students are also required to select a MH, SA and Trauma related field placement in the advanced year of MSW study.

All foundation courses must be taken before starting any advanced courses. All field instruction courses require a corequisite of a practice class.

SWK 710 is required in the advanced year of the program and must be taken in Garden City. All students in the advanced year complete a Concentration in Advanced Contemporary Direct Practice. SWK 710, 722, 758, 780, 782, and field instruction are concentration courses. All students in the advanced year are required to take 780 and 782 corequisite with field instruction.

GRADING POLICY

M.S.W. students receive letter grades for all courses taken with the exception of field instruction, which is graded Pass/Fail.

Criteria for evaluation of student’s work are:

- Mastery of course content
- Critical thinking
- Organization of material
- Writing ability
- Integration and application of course content to social work
- Ability to conceptualize

ACADEMIC COURSES

Academic courses are graded by letter:

- A (4.0) = 93 and above
- A- (3.7) = 90–92
- B+ (3.3) = 87–89
- B (3.0) = 83–86
- B- (2.7) = 80–82
- C+ (2.3) = 77–79
- C (2.0) = 73–76
- C- (1.7) = 70–72
- F (0.0) = 69 and below

The nominal definitions of letter grades are:

- A is awarded for excellent work
- B is awarded for good work
- C is awarded for marginal work
- F is awarded for failing work

Incomplete Grades

Incomplete grades are given when students cannot complete requirements within the semester. To receive an incomplete grade, a contract must be completed by the instructor, stipulating the agreed-upon terms regarding completion of course requirements. Once the student completes these terms, the instructor submits a change of grade.

All incomplete grades require that the instructor complete an Incomplete Grade Contract in the CLASS system. The incomplete contract is electronically submitted to the associate dean for academic affairs for review and approval. Once electronically approved, the incomplete contract is forwarded via email to the student, the instructor, and the associate dean for academic affairs.
Incomplete grades can be given in a course at the discretion of the instructor. A contract is submitted by the instructor stipulating the terms under which the student must complete the work, including an agreed upon due date. The incomplete contract due date may not exceed a one year period. The incomplete will change to an F if the contract has not been completed.

Students who have received an incomplete in a prerequisite course, and are enrolled in the subsequent course, have until the second meeting of the subsequent course to remove the incomplete. If an incomplete in a prerequisite course is not removed by the second meeting, the student must withdraw from the course.

LEAVES OF ABSENCES

Requirements for a Personal Leave of Absence

Graduate students in good academic standing requesting a personal leave should submit a written request to the associate dean for academic affairs. The request must include the reason for the personal leave and the expected date of return to school. A maximum of one year leave is permitted. Students who are approved for a personal leave of absence are blocked from registering for classes. When the student returns and is ready to register, the block is lifted. A written request to return following a leave is required. In order to retain earned credits, the student must return to school within five years of the course(s) completed. A student must be in good academic standing, defined as having a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0, in order to be eligible to request a personal leave of absence.

LMSW EXAM

New York State was among the first states to regulate the social work profession, enacting its certification law in 1962. In September 2004, that law was replaced by a new statute that created two licensed social work titles in New York State, the licensed master social worker (LMSW) and the licensed clinical social worker (LCSW).

Upon completion of the M.S.W., Adelphi graduates are eligible to apply for licensure as a licensed master social worker (LMSW). The School offers Licensing Preparatory Prep. For more information about the licensing exam and prep, see:
http://socialwork.adelphi.edu/academics/graduate-degrees/lmsw-licensing-information/

STUDENT LIFE

GRADUATE SOCIAL WORK STUDENT ASSOCIATION

All graduate social work students in the master’s program are members of the Graduate Social Work Student Association (GSWSA). Students are encouraged to become active participants in the educational process. The association’s goal is to facilitate the educational pursuits of student members by working to achieve quality learning. Opportunity exists within this process for practical experience in leadership roles, advocacy, and organization within the framework of established University policy.

The GSWSA provides an organization through which students can coordinate their interests and act cooperatively and assertively on behalf of all social work students. It exists to facilitate maximum student involvement in the planning and evaluation of class and field curricula, and acts as a liaison between students, the faculty, and the administration. In addition, it organizes and presents programs to enhance the overall learning experience. The GSWSA welcomes your ideas, questions, and participation regarding all areas of your educational experience. All programs sponsored by the Graduate Social Work Student Association are announced via email. Ms. Schanica Pickens is the Director of Student Engagement and Academic Success is a liaison with the GSWSA and can be reached via email: spickens@adelphi.edu

SCHOOL COMMITTEES
Students have the opportunity to serve on School of Social Work academic committees. The following committees welcome active student participation and are listed below.

ACADEMIC STANDARDS COMMITTEE:
Has the responsibility for acting as consultant to faculty field liaisons and academic advisers with respect to student progress, as well as maintenance of educational standards. It reviews students for probationary status and possible termination of studies, and makes recommendations for action to the dean.

ADMISSIONS COMMITTEE:
Responsible for reviewing graduate applications and recommending admissions policies to the faculty.

CIRRICULUM COMMITTEE:
Develops policies for curricula at the undergraduate and graduate levels. It reviews all innovations and changes in curricula and makes recommendations to the faculty for final decisions.

FIELD EDUCATION COMMITTEE:
Monitors and develops field education curricula and recommends policies for field instruction to the faculty of the School of Social Work.

SCHOLARSHIP COMMITTEE:
Recommends policies and guidelines for distribution of school scholarships. The Scholarship Committee reviews all applications for scholarships and, with the authority delegated to it by the dean, awards student grants that are based on specified criteria.

SEARCH COMMITTEE:
Responsible for recruiting and interviewing potential full-time faculty for the School of Social Work and making recommendations to the dean.

SEQUENCE COMMITTEE:
Responsible for reviewing all courses in their respective areas, refining course objectives and contents in relationship to the mission of the School and overall School curricula, and for preparing and suggesting to the Curriculum Committee new courses for consideration by the faculty. The sequences are:

• Human Behavior and Social Environment
In addition, ad hoc committees are established to address specific needs not subsumed under existing committee areas.

For further information about any of these committees, or to volunteer to participate on a School committee should contact Dr. Laura Quiros, the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs and Director of the MSW Program in the School of Social Work, Room 221 or 516-877-4439 or via email lquiros.@adelphi.edu.

Given the fact that a large percentage of our students are part-time, it is often difficult to insure that all the voices of the students are heard by representatives to the various committees. The number of students serving on committees varies from year to year depending upon student availability and interest. Student engagement at the extension centers programs occurs as well. At all these sites, —town meetings are held twice a year to insure that students concerns are heard and addressed. They are led by the Associate Dean for Off Campus Programs and Administration, the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, or the Dean. Attendance continues to be strong and responses to students concerns are addressed at that time or on follow-up through e-mail or in person. Town Hall meetings will be held during each residency period led by the Director of the Hybrid MSW Program and the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, and/or the Dean. This will afford students enrolled in the hybrid program an opportunity to ensure that students concerns are heard and addressed in the same manner as our campus based programs.

We also have Student Experience Committee which is comprised of students representing the BSW, MSW, and Ph.D. program at all four sites, two members of the faculty, and School of Social Work administration and/or staff. The Committee meets monthly to examine and discuss issues that impact students as they proceed through their educational experience at Adelphi such as the school’s climate, pedagogy and inclusiveness. The committee also functions as an advisory board to bring issues raised and solutions to the attention of faculty and administrators. Students enrolled in the Hybrid program may participate in all activities, programs and committees, including the Student Experience Committee, as campus based students, should they wish to do so. In the event that participation is prohibitive due to geographic distance from the campus, and they would like to participate, they may participate via google hangout, chat or other virtual link.

tolerated, and persons who breach academic integrity will be sanctioned in accordance with the section entitled Academic Honesty at Adelphi.” -- Adelphi University Code of Conduct

1. Fabricating data or citations
2. Collaborating in areas prohibited by the professor
3. Unauthorized multiple submissions of work

In joining the Adelphi community I accept the University’s Statement of Academic Integrity and pledge to uphold the principles of honesty and civility embodied in it. I will conduct myself in accordance with ideals of truth and honesty and I will forthrightly oppose actions which would violate these ideals.”

All members of the University community are responsible to familiarize themselves and abide by all rules and procedures related to academic honesty at Adelphi. These materials can be found in multiple sources, including on Adelphi’s Academic Integrity site at academics.adelphi.edu/academic-integrity.

PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism occurs when one does not give credit to another author’s ideas. This includes lifting paragraphs from a book or the Internet, using someone else’s papers, and failing to acknowledge the ideas of another person. Plagiarism and other forms of academic dishonesty are serious offenses. Penalties can range from failure for the assignment or course, to dismissal from the program.

CRITERIA FOR EVALUATING ACADEMIC AND PROFESSIONAL PERFORMANCE

Beginning at orientation and continuing throughout the student’s program, details of the criteria for evaluating student performance in class and in field are announced and published. The school considers such policies and standards as important components in maintaining high performance expectations and minimum measures of acceptable achievement. Posted in the Student Handbook, in the Field Manual, and on all course outlines, information about grading, incompletes, and pass/fail options is available to all undergraduate and graduate students. Students receive the Student Handbook and the Field Manual at orientation. Included in each of these documents is also the NASW Code of Ethics for review and reference. General information about criteria for evaluation is entered as part of all syllabi. In addition, specific information regarding assignments and how students’ work will be evaluated are instructor-specific.

All faculty (full and part-time) are required to hand out to students a separate page covering this information, as well as their specific policies with regard to absences and acceptance of late papers. A minimum 3.0 total GPA is required for the graduate MSW students. Students receive letter grades, A, A-, B+, B, B-, C+, C, C- and F in class. Field instruction earns Pass/Fail grades. Incomplete grades (I) are given for extenuating circumstances only. When a student receives a grade of I, an Incomplete Contract is completed and signed by both the instructor and the student, detailing the unfinished work that must be completed by a set date. Students have a maximum of one year from the end of the class to complete all the work.

General information about criteria for evaluation is entered as part of all syllabi. Each course outline details the course description, objectives, competencies and practice behaviors associated with the course. In addition, the syllabi lists whether the course meets general education requirements, any prerequisite, credit hours, required books, and course overview and assignments with information regarding conforming to the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association for guidance. In addition, evaluation criteria, and critical issues related to student performance including grading policy, educational accommodations, student attendance, student conduct, plagiarism, the use of electronic devices in classroom, and attendance requirements. Specific readings, class participation and attendance policies are also included. The consistency of providing this information on all course outlines establishes the school’s priority on informing all students of said performance expectations.

The Field Manual lists and outlines performance criteria for each level of field instruction, BSW junior, BSW senior, MSW foundation year and MSW advanced year. In addition, the role of the field instructor is to monitor, supervise and evaluate the student’s performance and the field liaison/ advisor’s role is to review the field instructor’s evaluation and report a Pass or Fail grade for field instruction.

Students are expected to meet the academic and field performance criteria as set by the school as well as the professional expectations of behavior according the NASW Code of Ethics in class, in field, and the community.

Academic standards for classroom courses include, but are not limited to: Academic performance as required to achieve course objectives and EPAS core competencies and associated behaviors, academic honesty (e.g., plagiarism and cheating, see http://operations.adelphi.edu/policies/academic-honesty/), attendance, classroom department (e.g., constructive participation, not engaging in disruptive behavior, putting away electronic devices when requested), and conduct that is consistent with the NASW Code of Ethics. Examples of classroom instructors’ options for enforcing these standards include but are not limited to giving reduced or failing grades for an assignment or entire course, assignment of additional work, referring the student to supports such as the Writing Center, their advisor, or (if applicable) Disability Support Services, or requiring an apology or some other effort to repair a disrupted classroom process. Under the doctrine of academic freedom as operationalized in University policy, instructors have sole authority over students’ grades. Instructors also have discretion not to allow a student to attend class. Instructors have the authority to “fail-withdraw” a student.

Instructors handle cases of academic dishonesty according to the established procedures of the MSW program, the School of Social Work, and Adelphi University. Generally, instructors will notify and attempt to meet with the student, apply course-specific sanctions (which are at their sole discretion), notify the student’s Academic Advisor, and make a report to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and the MSW program director’s office. The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs office may apply additional sanctions based on the seriousness of the offense and previous incidents of academic dishonesty involving the student. The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and MSW Program director may choose to refer the case to an Academic Standards Committee, procedures for which are described below. Students are encouraged to take advantage of the library’s and the School of Social Work’s resources, the Writing Center, tutoring, uploading drafts to Turnitin (which instructors can set up on course websites), instructors’ office hours, and other resources for avoiding plagiarism. Students have a right to appeal findings about their academic honesty to the University Committee for Academic Honesty.

ACADEMIC PROBATION POLICY

Graduate students must maintain a B (3.0) cumulative grade-point average (GPA) in order to be in good academic standing.

Any graduate student with a GPA between 2.5 and 2.99 at the end of any semester (or its equivalent) in the School will be placed on probation. Students on probation are informed in writing from the School.

Any graduate student on probation who does not raise his or her GPA to 3.0 by the end of the probationary semester will be subject to dismissal from the program.

The probationary semester is defined as the equivalent of either one full-time semester or two part-time semesters. Full-time students placed on academic probation are strongly advised to move to part-time student status in order to focus adequately on improving academic performance.

For all students on academic probation, an academic probation contract is generated that must be reviewed and signed by the student placed on probation. It is a requirement of continuing matriculation that students on academic probation meet with a designated administrator in the School’s office of academic affairs to review the contract and develop an educational plan to attain good standing in the program.

Please note: For part-time students on academic probation, students must meet the terms of their first academic probation contract (first semester on probation) in order to advance to the second and final academic probation contract (final semester on probation). Failure to meet the terms of the first contract may result in dismissal from the program.

Any graduate student with a GPA below 2.5 at any point in his or her experience at the School will be subject to dismissal from the School. Any graduate student dismissed from the program for failure to maintain academic standards has the option to petition the Academic Standards Committee (ASC) for an exception to dismissal.

This option can be exercised on only one occasion. To appeal a dismissal due to low GPA, the student must submit documentation to support the appeal to the chair of the ASC. All material must be sent within two weeks after receipt of the letter of dismissal.

Note: Students on probation cannot take a leave of absence, withdraw from any class, or receive an incomplete in any course during the time they are on probation. Failure to comply with this will result in termination from the program.

ACADEMIC STANDARDS COMMITTEE (ASC) FOR GRADUATE STUDENTS

The Academic Standards Committee (ASC) is composed of social work faculty and administration charged with developing academic and professional standards as well as conducting panel meetings to review reports related to students’ unethical and/or unprofessional behavior and recommending appropriate action to the dean.

The ASC has four roles:

1. Develops and recommends academic and professional standards for students in consultation with faculty.

2. Serves as a consultative committee to faculty field liaisons, classroom teacher, and academic advisers regarding professional conduct of students.

3. Conducts hearings and makes recommendations to the dean about M.S.W. students facing possible dismissal based on professional performance and conduct in field education.

4. Serves as an appeal committee for M.S.W. students who challenge dismissal based on academic grades.

Reasons for referral to the ASC include, but are not limited to a report of unethical and/or professional behavior by the students, submitted by either the field instructor, the faculty field liaison, a classroom instructor or other persons relevant to the student’s educational program. Breaches of professional ethics that may warrant a referral to ASC include:

- Plagiarism and other academic dishonesty
- Absence from field without notification
- Breach of confidentiality
- Inappropriate relationships and/or boundary problems with clients, staff or other students
• Failure to disclose a potential conflict or threat
• Impairment due to alcohol or drug abuse
• Threatening behavior to clients or others
• Behaviors that violate the NASW Code of Ethics
• Failure or at risk for failure in field instruction criteria from the Field Education Manual

Any action, behavior or decision that reflects poor judgment, lack of insight, and/or limited decision-making skills

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES FOR TERMINATING A STUDENT’S ENROLLMENT IN THE PROGRAM FOR REASONS OF ACADEMIC AND PROFESSIONAL PERFORMANCE

Students are expected to complete all academic and field requirements in the graduate program as they master the Program’s core competencies. There are times, however, when issues arise regarding student’s academic and professional performance that warrant review that question’s continuing progress in the program. There is a commitment to a fair gatekeeping policies and procedures that address concerns that may result in termination in the students’ enrollment in the program.

Academic Standards Committee Process

The faculty member or administrator who initiates an Academic Standards Committee (ASC) Review Panel shall make the request to the Chair of the ASC through written communication that summarizes the referral which describes the problem area to be addressed and includes relevant material.

The Chair of the ASC determines the need to convene an ASC panel (in consultation with members of the ASC committee when needed).

The student is notified by the Chair in writing and discusses any questions about the process and is advised that he or she can bring a person to the panel to serve as an advocate. The advocate may be an Adelphi faculty member or student. The advocate may not be an attorney.

The Chair of the ASC gathers all relevant materials. The student is given the opportunity to provide a written statement and include any additional materials that she or he believes are relevant to the matter.

Generally, within ten days following discussion with both the student and person who initiated the complaint, a letter indicating the date and time of the panel is sent by the Chair.

The ASC panel is formed (a chair and two faculty committee members). Each panel member should have no prior relationship with the student that may be perceived as a conflict of interest.

The ASC panel should provide an opportunity for all information and differing perspectives to be heard. Generally the Chair makes introductions and reviews the policies and procedures.
The faculty member or administrator who initiated the panel is given an opportunity to speak as well as other attendees who have relevant information. The student makes a statement as well as the advocate if present. The Chair and committee members are given an opportunity to ask questions reflecting upon what has been said by all parties.

The ASC committee then meets privately to discuss all relevant information presented and reviewed with respect to the referral and to discuss possible outcomes. A recommendation is arrived at after careful deliberation and by majority vote. The recommendation shall be communicated in writing to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and will include the rationale for the specific recommendation made. The recommendation may include, but is not limited to: no action; probation with conditions of remediation; withdrawal with option to request readmission following recommendation of remediation; or dismissal from the program.

The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs renders the decision which is sent to the student in writing via certified mail and copied to the Chair of the ASC and the person who initiated the panel, generally after ten days after the receipt of the recommendation.

The student has the right to appeal the decision in writing to the Dean of the School of Social Work on the basis of significant and relevant new information or a procedural error to the panel process or an assertion that the process was biased or unfair within five days upon receipt of the decision.

Once the request for an appeal is received by the Dean, a decision will be rendered on eligibility for appeal usually within ten days.

If grounds are not met, the request for an appeal will be denied with no further appeal options.

If the Dean believes that the appropriate grounds are present, he or she may either ask the original ASC panel to reconvene or ask the Chair of the ASC to form a new panel. The Dean may choose to uphold or reverse the decision with or without the convening of a panel depending on the merits.

All aspects of the process and decision shall be kept confidential except to those who have an educational need to know the outcome.

University protocol for student complaints concerning the actions of members of the faculty

Members of the Adelphi faculty are expected to meet the highest standards of the academy in all aspects of their professional conduct. These standards derive from many sources, including institutional policies, the rights and reasonable requirements of students, contractual agreements, the law, and expectations of integrity. Adelphi University is responsible for fully and fairly addressing complaints concerning conduct by faculty while acting in the context of affiliation with the University.
Issues dealing with harassment should be dealt with under the University’s Anti-Discrimination, Harassment and Retaliation Policy. An online reporting form is available at hr.adelphi.edu/title-ix/report.

Issues related to grades follow the procedures set forth in the Graduate Bulletin:

Grades are submitted only by the instructor of the course. Any change of grade must be approved by that instructor. A grade may be changed only if there is unequivocal evidence that it was the result of computational or mechanical error. Students who believe their grades are incorrect or unfair should:

- Discuss their course work with the instructor.
- Review with the course instructor the grading policies for the course.
- If still dissatisfied, disputes concerning grades should be brought to the chair of the department (if there is a chair).
- The chair may choose to discuss the matter with the instructor to try to resolve the issues.
- If still dissatisfied, or if there is no chair, students should bring their concerns to the assistant or associate dean of the school responsible for the course.
- The dean may choose to discuss the matter with the chair and/or the instructor to try to resolve the issues.
- If the issues remain unresolved, the student may request that the Office of Academic Services discuss the matter with the instructor.
- The Associate Provost may choose to discuss the matter with the dean.

If the Chair, Dean, or Provost concludes that a grade was a result of arbitrary or capricious conduct on the part of the instructor, the student may be allowed to withdraw from the course. In the case of arbitrary or capricious conduct, the department or school may allow the substitution of another course to replace the course in question.

All disputes concerning the accuracy of a grade must be raised within one calendar year. Grade changes must first be signed by the instructor and then by the department chair and the appropriate dean before being submitted to the Registrar.

Student complaints of bias-related incidents against University employees (including faculty) are to be filed with the Office of the Dean of Student Affairs.

Other complaints not covered above, should be addressed as follows:
• Discuss with the faculty member concerned, if appropriate

• If not appropriate or the student remains dissatisfied, the issue should be brought to the chair of the department (if there is a chair)

• If still dissatisfied, or if there is no chair, the issue should be brought to the assistant or associate dean of the school in which the faculty member belongs

• If still dissatisfied, the issue should be brought to the dean of the school in which the faculty member belongs

• If the issue remains unresolved, the student may request that the Office of Academic Services help resolve the matter

School of Social Work Ad-Hoc Graduate Grievance Review Committee

Consistent with the University protocol (at the associate dean level of review), at the discretion of the associate dean for academic affairs of the School of Social Work, an MSW Graduate Grievance Review Committee may be convened on an ad-hoc basis in the event an MSW student chooses to file a grievance pertaining to an academic or non-academic matter in the School of Social Work. The associate dean for academic affairs receives and reviews the grievance first to determine the appropriate pathway for the complaint, guided by the Office of the Provost’s University Protocol for Student Complaints (detailed above), the School’s grievance review policy, and also in accordance with the AAUP Collective Bargaining Agreement where applicable.

If warranted, the associate dean for academic affairs may convene an ad-hoc grievance review committee consisting of the associate dean for academic affairs and two to three social work faculty members.

If the committee reviews a grievance and finds that the evidence is insufficient to make a recommendation or take action, a final decision is rendered and communicated to the student by the associate dean for academic affairs.

If the committee reviews a grievance and finds that the evidence supports making a recommendation or taking further action, the associate dean for academic affairs will attempt to resolve the matter further in consultation with the parties involved in the grievance.

If the situation cannot be resolved, the committee’s recommendations shall be sent to the Dean, the highest administrative officer of the School, for further action.
