

PROOF OF SEPARATION/DIVORCE

(Dependent student)

Student Name: _____ Adelphi ID #: _____

Your custodial parent's marital status was reported on the 2015-2016 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) as Separated/Divorced. Before we can determine your eligibility for federal and state financial assistance, this form must be completed and returned with all required documents. Failure to provide this information may result in the loss of federal financial aid for this academic year.

If you do not or cannot provide the required documents, the income and asset information of both parents may be required on the FAFSA.

STEP 3: Required documentation

If your parents are DIVORCED:

- A copy of your parent's divorce decree.
- Documentation that your parents permanently reside in separate residences. This must include official documents such as separate leases/mortgage statements, bank statements, driver's licenses, etc. Documentation must show that two separate households are maintained at two different physical addresses.
- Copies of all parental W-2 forms and Official Tax Return transcripts from the IRS for your custodial parent.

If your parents are SEPARATED:

- A copy of their legal separation agreement if they have one.
- A notarized letter from your parent whose information is supplied on your FAFSA whether the separation is permanent, and if there are plans to file for a divorce.
- Official documentation that your parents permanently reside in separate residences: this must include official documents such as separate leases/mortgage statements, bank statements, driver's licenses, etc. All documents must show that two separate households are maintained at two different physical addresses.
- Two letters from third party professionals (i.e. attorney, counselor, clergy person, case worker, etc.) on letterhead who can confirm your parents' marital status in their professional capacity.

If this documentation cannot be provided, you may be required to provide the tax and asset information for both of your parents on the FAFSA to be considered for federal financial aid.

Your file will be reviewed faster if all documentation is submitted at the same time. Each document should have your name and Adelphi I.D. number on it. The complete packet must be reviewed and approved before financial aid will be awarded. Only the documents listed on this form will be accepted. Submission of the requested documentation does not guarantee approval.

Further explanations regarding any portion of this form should be included on a separate sheet and submitted with all other documentation.

By signing this form, you agree to provide additional documentation, if needed, that will verify the accuracy of your information. If you purposely give false or misleading information to qualify for Title IV funds, you will be referred to the United States Department of Education's Inspector General, and you may be fined up to $20,000, sent to prison, or both.
