March 22, 2016
Registration begins for Summer 2016 for undergraduate students.

April

If you filed your 2016-2017 FAFSA using estimated tax figures, correct your FAFSA to actual tax figures. If eligible, you should use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool (DRT) at studentaid.ed.gov/fafsa/filling-out#financial-info.

Continuing students who have filed the FAFSA and who have completed all application requirements will begin to receive their Financial Plan Summary (Award Letter).

Requests for additional documentation required to complete the application process will be mailed to the student. Prompt submission of all requested documentation is necessary to avoid delays that may impact your eligibility for institutional and campus-based assistance.

Notify the Office of Student Financial Services if you are planning to attend the Summer 2016 semester and want to be considered for federal student loans and/or the Federal Pell Grant.

Correspondence is sent to students regarding the Monthly Tuition Pay Plan option for the 2016-2017 academic year.

Registration begins for Fall 2016 for undergraduate students.
