

The DACA, International and Immigration Task Force

Notes from the October 18, 2017 Meeting

1. The Task Force agreed to meet once a month with emergency meetings called as needed
2. Sidney Boquiren gave an update on the Confidential Allies initiative. Confidential Allies training will take place on November 3, 2017
3. Jeff Kessler affirmed the need for a Confidential Allies Program at Adelphi. He expressed concern for DACA students when the DACA Executive Order is revoked in March 2018
4. Perry Greene gave an update on the status of Present Trump's travel ban Executive Order- It has been challenged by a federal judge
5. The Task Force discussed the presentation of a StoryCorps model during International Week
6. The Task Force discussed scholarship sites on the Web for which DACA students and other vulnerable populations can access scholarship possibilities. Bryan Wygal and Beth Christensen of the Faculty Senate have met with the President on this matter
7. The Task Force discussed the possibility of developing a blog on immigrations and related issues

Perry Greene

November 8, 2017