

The DACA, International and Immigration Task Force

Notes from the March 1, 2017 Meeting

1. Introduction of Carl Mirra and Marilyn Klainberg.
2. Discussed need for more faculty leadership on Task Force.
 - a. Michael O'Loughlin has agreed to participate.
 - b. Further referrals to be sent to Esther/Perry
3. Meeting schedule for next three months was distributed.
4. Reviewed the DACA, Immigration and International Support website.
 - a. <http://global.adelphi.edu/daca-immigration-and-international-support/>
 - b. Feature image linking to website on main Adelphi homepage.
 - c. Any news/resources on immigration can be sent to Sally Stieglitz. She agreed to be the hub for all information, and then determine whether to post on LibGuide.
5. Discussion about students who may need to stay on campus during summer and intersession.
6. Jeff Kessler is the point of contact for students who have questions or have concerns about current climate on immigration and other matters.
 - a. Jeff handed out a list of organizations that assist immigrants and asked for the groups feedback at the next meeting.
 - b. Wendy Badala – International students
7. The group discussed ways to informational the services the task force provides for the Adelphi community.
 - a. Report to the faculty senate.
 - Create language and ask faculty to talk to students during class.
 - b. Reach out to student organizations. Attend meetings and inform students of services provided and available by task force.
 - c. Create some sort of marketing piece that could be handed out throughout the campus.
8. The group discussed a Safe Zone marketing concept.
 - a. Create posters: "Immigrants and Refugees Are Welcome"

- b. Video to post on social media platforms.
9. Authentic Voices Video
- a. Possible interview candidates for video should be sent to John. Please provide contact information.
 - b. John will send out a google doc with some language presenting the task force's position and actions for video.
 - c. Day of Support - the idea of a AU community group shot of fellow faculty, students and staff in support of immigrants in front of flag pole.

Esther, Perry and Stefanie

March 1, 2017