Spouse or Dependent Child death benefits are payable to you.

Employee death benefits are payable in accordance with the Beneficiary designation made by you. Unless you specify otherwise, if more than one beneficiary survives you, all surviving beneficiaries will receive an equal share of the Employee Voluntary Life Insurance benefit. If no beneficiary is alive on the date of your death or if there is no Beneficiary designation, the Voluntary Life Insurance benefit will be payable to your estate. The Beneficiary designation must be in writing, in a manner acceptable to us, dated and signed by you and on file with your Employer.

If we determine that a claim is payable, we will pay the benefit pursuant to the Beneficiary designation or the terms of the Policy, except in the following situations:

1. the Beneficiary is a minor. If the Beneficiary is a minor, we will pay the benefit to the minor's court appointed guardian or conservator or other party appointed by a court to be responsible for the minor's property or estate;
2. the person to receive the benefit is not competent. If the person to receive the benefit is not competent, we will pay the claim to the person's court appointed guardian or conservator or other party appointed by a court to be responsible for the person's property or estate; or
3. You die before we pay you. In such case, claim may be made by your executor or the administrator of your estate and we will pay the benefit to your estate.

If a benefit is payable to your estate, if the Beneficiary is a minor, or the person to be paid the benefit is not competent, we may, at our option, pay up to $500 to any individual or entity we determine has incurred or paid expenses as a result of funeral services provided to or on your behalf. If we pay such a benefit, we will not have to pay that benefit amount again and the total benefit due under the Policy shall be reduced by the amount paid under this provision.

The death benefit is payable in a lump sum unless you or the Beneficiary elect another method of payment available to us. The available methods of payment will be based on the benefit options offered by us at the time of election.

12. INSURANCE CONTINUATION

Are there any conditions under which your Employer can continue your insurance?

While the Policy is in force and subject to the conditions stated in the Policy, your Employer may continue your insurance that was in force on the date immediately before the date you ceased to be Actively at Work by paying the required premium to us for any of the following reasons and durations:

- Absence due to Injury or Sickness – up to 12 months
- Layoff – up to 1 month
- Leave of Absence – up to 1 month
- School Recess - up to 3 months
- Vacation – based on your Employer's policy, not to exceed 3 months.

You should contact your Employer for more details.

While the Policy is in force, if you are Totally Disabled on the date you cease to be Actively at Work, you may be eligible for the Waiver of Premium Benefit.

While the Policy is in force, you may be eligible to continue your insurance pursuant to the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993, as amended or continue coverage pursuant to a state required continuation period (if any). You should contact your Employer for more details.

While the Policy is in force, you may be eligible to continue your insurance coverage pursuant to the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA). You should contact your Employer for more details.

After your continued insurance ends, you or your Spouse or your Dependent Child may be eligible for the Conversion Privilege.

13. PORTABILITY

What is portable insurance and when are you eligible for it?

Portable insurance is an optional benefit that you may elect to continue your insurance for each Insured without Evidence of Insurability if your insurance ends because you terminate employment; and you meet the following requirements:

- the Policy is still in force; and
- you are under age 70 at the time employment terminates; and
- you have not retired; and
- the hours you work for your Employer have not been reduced; and
- your insurance is not being continued under any Insurance Continuation provision; and
- your insurance is not being continued under the Waiver of Premium Benefit; and
- you have not exercised your portable insurance right under a similar certificate issued by us; and
- you reside in the United States or Canada on the date your insurance ends.

You may not elect portable insurance for your Spouse or Dependent Children if you have not elected portable insurance for yourself.

If you convert your coverage under any Conversion Privilege of the Policy, you will not be eligible to apply for portable insurance for that same coverage.

When must you apply for portable insurance?

You must complete an application for portable insurance and send it to us with payment of the first premium within 31 days of the date your employment terminates or during any extension of the period permitted by the Policy. The application for portable insurance is available from your Employer.

May the time to exercise Portability be extended beyond the 31 day period?

If you are not provided notice by your Employer of your right to exercise Portability within 15 days before or following the date your insurance ceases but you are provided notice more than 15 days but less than 90 days following the date your employment ceases, you shall have an additional 45 days from the date of the notice to exercise Portability. If notice is not given within 90 days following the date your employment ceases, the time allowed for the exercise of Portability expires at the end of the 90 day period.

What is the amount of portable insurance you can apply for?

You may apply for portable insurance in an amount up to 100% of each Insured's amount of insurance in force under the Policy on the date your employment terminates to a maximum of $500,000 for each Insured. Amounts in excess of the maximum may be converted to an individual life insurance policy.

If you are insured for Basic Life Insurance and/or Voluntary Life Insurance, under a Policy issued by us, the total combined amount of portable insurance you may apply for cannot exceed $1,000,000 per Insured.

When does your portable insurance start?

If your application for portable insurance is approved and the first premium is paid when due, your portable insurance will start on the date your employment terminates.

Your portable insurance will be provided under an insurance policy we make available for this purpose. Your portable insurance may not be identical to your current insurance under the Policy. The premium for the portable insurance will be determined by the amount of portable insurance and the rate charged for the standard class of risk and age to which each Insured belongs on the effective date of the portable insurance policy.

If your application for portable insurance is declined, you will be given a 31-day period or any extension of the period permitted by the Policy to apply for an individual life insurance policy under the Conversion Privilege.

14. CONTINUITY OF COVERAGE

What happens if your Employer replaces other insurance with this Certificate and the Policy?

If your Employer replaces insurance provided by another insurance company ("Prior Policy") with the insurance provided by this Certificate and the Policy ("This Policy"), the Continuity of Coverage benefits in this Section may be available to you. These benefits will be available if the insurance and level of benefits under the Prior Policy were substantially similar to the insurance provided by This Policy.

What if you are not Actively at Work when your Employer's Prior Policy is replaced with This Policy?

- you were insured under your Employer's Prior Policy on the day before January 1, 2018;
- you are a member of an Eligible Class;
- your Employer continues to remit premiums for your coverage; and

Any benefit payable will be the lesser of:

- the benefit payable under This Policy; or
- the benefit payable under your Employer's Prior Policy.

Your Spouse or Dependent Child will be insured under This Policy on January 1, 2018 and:

- your Spouse or Dependent Child was insured under your Employer's Prior Policy on the day before January 1, 2018;
- you are a member of an Eligible Class for Spouse or Dependent Child coverage;

- you are not receiving or eligible to receive Spouse or Dependent Child benefits under your Employer's Prior Policy.

Any benefit payable will be the lesser of:

- the benefit payable under This Policy; or
- the benefit payable under your Employer's Prior Policy.

Does the Eligibility Waiting Period apply when your Employer's Prior Policy is replaced with This Policy?

We will apply any period of time satisfied under the Prior Policy to meet the requirements of the Eligibility Waiting Period toward the satisfaction of the period of time required under This Policy's Eligibility Waiting Period.

The assignee can make any change the Policy allows, consistent with the assignment, such as a change of Beneficiary.

Any assignment must be in writing and on file with your Employer and will take effect as of the date signed. We will honor your prior assignment of rights and benefits under the Employer's plan whether or not this policy is specified in the assignment. If we have taken any action or made payment prior to receiving notice of the assignment, the assignment will not affect any action or payment by us. We will not be responsible for the legal, tax or other effects of any assignment.

BENEFICIARY

How can you change your Beneficiary?

You can change your Beneficiary at any time, unless you have made an irrevocable Beneficiary designation or you have assigned your interest in your Employee Voluntary Life Insurance to another person. Any request for change in Beneficiary must be in writing, in a manner acceptable to us, dated and signed by you. It will take effect as of the date signed. If we have taken any action or make payment before receiving notice of a change in Beneficiary, the change will not affect any action or payment made by us. The Beneficiary's consent is not required to change the beneficiary, unless the current beneficiary designation is irrevocable.

CLERICAL AND OTHER ADMINISTRATIVE ERRORS

What happens when there is a clerical or other error in the administration of the Policy?

Clerical or other errors in the administration of the Policy or delays in keeping records for the Policy whether by us, the Policyholder, or the Employer:

- will not terminate insurance that would otherwise have been effective.
- will not continue insurance that would otherwise have ceased or should not have been in effect.
- will not make effective insurance that would otherwise have never been in force.

If appropriate, a fair adjustment of premium will be made to correct the error.

This provision does not apply to benefit administration errors by the Policyholder or the Employer which results in an Employee:

- not enrolling for insurance within required time limits;
- not providing required Evidence of Insurability;

DISCHARGE OF OUR RESPONSIBILITY

What is the effect of payments under the Policy?

Payment made under the terms of the Policy will, to the extent of such payment, release us from all further obligations under the Policy. We will not be obligated to see to the application of such payment.

ENTIRE CONTRACT

The Policy is the entire contract. It consists of:

- all of the pages of the Policy;
- the application of the Policyholder;
- each Employee's written application for insurance (Employee retains his own copy);
- any Certificates, including any certificate riders, amendments or endorsements, incorporated in and made a part of the Policy.

No rights of the Policyholder or of any Insured or Beneficiary will be affected by any provision other than one contained in the Policy or the riders or endorsements or in the amendments agreed to and signed by the Policyholder and us.

We will provide a Certificate to the Employer for delivery to each Employee. The Certificate will contain the important features of the Policy and to whom we will pay benefits. Nothing in the Policy invalidates or impairs any rights granted to the Employee as stated in the Certificate. The rights and benefits granted to the Employee under the Policy and Certificate will not be less than those required by the state where the Certificate is delivered and by New York law.

What are our examination rights?

We, at our expense, have the right to have any insured with respect to whom a claim has been filed:

validity of that insurance after the insurance has been in force for a period of two years during that individual's lifetime. The statement must be contained in a form signed by that individual, a copy of which is or has been provided to the Employer or to us, and to you or your Beneficiary, if any.

MISSTATEMENT OF FACTS

What happens if there is a misstatement of age?

If the relevant facts, sex or age of any Insured relating to this insurance is determined not to be accurate and the amount of insurance depends upon the relevant facts, sex or age of the Insured, an equitable adjustment of the amount of insurance and premium will be made.

This provision is limited to the first two years that coverage is in force.

The Policy is non-participating and will not share in any profits or surplus earnings of Sun Life and Health Insurance Company (U.S.) and, therefore, no dividends are payable.

PREMIUM

How are premiums determined?

The premiums due under this Policy are based upon the then current premium rates in effect for the benefits provided.

We determine initial or any subsequent monthly premium rates on the basis of the insurance being provided. We have the right to recalculate any premium rate after the initial premium rate has been in effect for 36 months from January 1, 2018, due to our determination of a change in mortality and morbidity risk.

We will provide written notification of any increases in the premium rates to the Policyholder at least 31 days prior to the effective date of the increase.

Does the payment of premiums guarantee coverage under the Policy?

The receipt of premiums by us is not a guarantee of insurance.

REIMBURSEMENT

What if a benefit is underpaid or overpaid?

Reimbursement will be made to us for any overpayments that we may make due to any reason.

You must repay us within 60 days unless we agree to a longer time period. Deductions may be made from future benefit payments to recover any such overpayments.

If we have underpaid a benefit for any reason, we will make a lump sum payment for that amount.

Interest does not accrue on any underpaid or overpaid benefit unless required under the applicable law.

Are statements warranties?

All statements made in any application are considered representations and not warranties. No material representation by you in enrolling for insurance under the Policy will be used to contest the validity of that insurance unless it is contained in your written application, signed by you, and a copy of your written application for insurance is or has been given to you or your Beneficiary, if any.

TIME PERIODS

What time periods apply to this Certificate?

For the purpose of effective dates and termination dates under this Certificate, all days begin at 12:00 midnight and end at 11:59:59 PM at the Policyholder's location.

You will then have the right, upon written notice from you or your authorized representative, to review that claim denial. The claim denial notice will include the name and address of the person you may ask for such a review. Additional information about claims submitted and review procedures may be obtained by contacting your Plan Administrator.

Your Rights under ERISA:

As a participant in the Plan, you are entitled to certain rights and protections under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). ERISA provides that all plan participants shall be entitled to:

Receive Information About Your Plan and Benefits

- Examine, without charge, at the Plan Administrator's office and at other specified locations, such as worksites and union halls, all documents governing the Plan, including insurance contracts and collective bargaining agreements, and a copy of the latest annual report (Form 5500 Series) filed by the Plan with the U.S. Department of Labor and available at the Public Disclosure Room of the Employee Benefits Security Administration.
- Obtain, upon written request to the Plan Administrator, copies of documents governing the operation of the Plan, including insurance contracts and collective bargaining agreements, and copies of the latest annual report (Form 5500 Series) and updated summary plan description. The Plan Administrator may make a reasonable charge for the copies.
- Receive a summary of the plan's annual financial report, if required by ERISA. The Plan Administrator is required by law to furnish each participant with a copy of this summary annual report.

Prudent Actions by Plan Fiduciaries

In addition to creating rights for Plan participants, ERISA imposes duties upon the people who are responsible for the operation of the Plan. The people who operate your plan, called "fiduciaries" of the Plan, have a duty to do so prudently and in the interest of you and other Plan participants and beneficiaries. No one, including your employer, your union, or any other person, may fire you or otherwise discriminate against you in any way to prevent you from obtaining a benefit or exercising your rights under ERISA.

Enforce Your Rights

If your claim for a benefit is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you have a right to know why this was done, to obtain copies of documents relating to the decision without charge, and to appeal any denial, all within certain time schedules.

Under ERISA, there are steps you can take to enforce the above rights. For instance, if you request a copy of Plan Documents or the latest annual report from the Plan and do not receive them within 30 days, you may file suit in a Federal court. In such a case, the court may require the Plan Administrator to provide the materials and pay you up to $110 a day until you receive the materials, unless the materials were not sent because of reasons beyond the control of the Plan Administrator.

If you have a claim for benefits which is denied or ignored, in whole or in part and if you have exhausted the claims and appeal procedures described in the Certificate, you may file suit in a state or Federal court. If it should happen that Plan fiduciaries misuse the Plan's money, or if you are discriminated against for asserting your rights, you may seek assistance of the U.S. Department of Labor, or you may file suit in a Federal court. The court will decide who should pay court costs and legal fees. If you are successful the court may order the person you have sued to pay these costs and fees. If you lose, the court may order you to pay these costs and fees, for example, if it finds your claim is frivolous.

Assistance with Your Questions

If you have questions about your Plan, you should contact the Plan Administrator. If you have any questions about this statement or about your rights under ERISA, or if you need assistance in obtaining documents from the Plan Administrator, you should contact the nearest office of the Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, listed in your telephone directory or the Division of Technical Assistance and Inquiries, Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, DC 20210. You may also obtain certain publications about your rights and responsibilities under ERISA by calling the publications hotline of the Employee Benefits Security Administration.
