1. A limited number of graduate assistantships are available to qualified students. The following general terms apply.
 2. Assistantships are awarded at the discretion of the academic department and are granted for a remission of tuition. Some assistantships also offer a stipend.
 3. In return for the award, the student is required to devote a specified number of hours each week during the academic year to assist in teaching, research, or other technical services as assigned by the department.
 4. Appointments may be awarded based on academic merit, and some may take financial need into consideration.
 5. Assistantships and/or associated stipends may impact your eligibility for other sources of financial aid. Taxes may be withheld from any stipend amount.
 6. To obtain application forms and specific eligibility requirements, you must contact your graduate school or academic department directly.
 7. Adelphi University reserves the right to revoke or adjust this award based on academic or behavioral violations, changes in enrollment, or eligibility for other federal, state, or institutional aid.
