

Muslim Life at Adelphi

The Muslim chaplain and the Muslim Student Association work to provide educational and cultural activities, religious services, informal discussions, and various programs for the community. The chaplain is available for personal consultation and guidance or informal conversation pertaining to faith matters, spiritual counseling and educational advisement. The office provides information on local Islamic centers, religious events and observances, as well as other services.

Protestant Life at Adelphi

Protestant life at Adelphi includes opportunities for prayer, study, fellowship, service and spiritual guidance for students of all Christian traditions and those struggling with faith. If you are looking to connect with others in exploring spiritual questions or would like to speak with a member of the clergy about anything, we are here for you.
Our chaplaincy is actively involved in supporting the whole Adelphi community, and it also serves on the LGBTQ and Allies Committee and the DACA, International and Immigration Task Force.

Office Hours:

Thursday, 4:00 p.m.–6:00 p.m., and anytime by appointment by calling 516.746.2955.

Services:

A special welcome is extended to all Adelphi
students at the 11:15 a.m. services every Sunday, conducted by the Adelphi Protestant chaplains at the Cathedral of the Incarnation, 50 Cathedral Avenue, Garden City, New York.

For more information about Protestant life at Adelphi, please contact the Protestant chaplains or the center directly.

Interfaith Center

Interfaith Center

Make spirituality an active part of your life at Adelphi. Come to the Interfaith Center for religious fellowship and worship, lectures and discussion, spiritual counseling and opportunities for community service.

The Interfaith Center is a welcoming place open to students, faculty, administrators and staff of every faith. Chaplains are available to offer spiritual guidance and discuss spiritual values and to help you learn more about your religious traditions or those of others. In addition to offering religious services, we can help you find houses of worship off campus. Whatever your faith, you are welcome to join any activity, program or service at the center. The Interfaith Center is dedicated to the cause of understanding and fellowship, and does not promote any particular religious belief or nonbelief.

Sikhs United

- This organization is about spreading Sikh ideals and beliefs of tranquility, spirituality and equality. The organization aims to do this by making changes through social and educational events, creative fundraising initiatives, and community service.
- For details, visit myaulife.adelphi.edu/organizations.

Note: Student organizations meet during the fall and spring semesters when classes are in session.

Catholic Life at Adelphi

The Catholic Campus Ministry Office at Adelphi University is a collegiate outreach of the Diocese of Rockville Centre Office of New Evangelization, which strives to meet students where they are and invite them to examine the meaning and purpose of their lives. Through large group outreach, Mass with peers, Lectio Divina, Rosary Mondays, Bible studies, the Newman Club and one-on-one mentoring, campus ministers are equipped to introduce college students to the person of Jesus Christ and to the Catholic faith, empowering them to share his love with the world. We aim to create a true community of Catholics working to recognize the face of Christ in each and every person we encounter. Being a family means loving, supporting and helping one another all the time.

Jewish Life at Adelphi

The Adelphi Jewish Student Union addresses the religious, spiritual and cultural elements of the Jewish world. We offer interreligious, multicultural and educational programs to the community at large, within the Jewish populations on campus and on an individual basis. We foster a Jewish, pluralistic ethos in the spirit of machlochet l'shem shamayim (conflict for the sake of heaven), hospitality and tolerance. We promote an exploration of all expressions of Jewish life.

Office Hours:

Wednesday, 12:00 noon–3:00 p.m.

A Jewish Tish is offered every Wednesday from 12:30 p.m. to 1:00 p.m. in the Ruth S. Harley University Center, Room 302.

For more information, contact Rabbi Glenn Jacob at gjacob@adelphi.edu.
