Welcome Message

Dear Students,

The faculty, administration, and staff welcome you to the Adelphi University School of Social Work. As a nationally renowned and highly ranked school, we have been preparing social workers for over 70 years. You have chosen a profession that is committed to improving the well-being of individuals, families and the communities, as well as society at large. As part of your educational experience, you will have classroom and practicum opportunities to develop the necessary social work knowledge, values, and skills that will enable you to transform lives, empower communities and advocate for social justice. As future change agents, we are excited that you have decided to start your professional journey here at Adelphi.

The student handbook is your important guide to navigate your educational journey at our school. In it you will find, among other things, policies and procedures pertaining to academics and student life. We hope you will take time to familiarize yourself with your rights and responsibilities as a student and the policies and procedures that govern academic progress in the M.S.W. program. We believe that familiarizing yourself with this information will be key to your successful journey through the program.

This is an important time to be a student in social work. We are dealing with a range of issues including, the continuing social, psychological and health effects of the COVID pandemic, the nation's reckoning with racism, health inequities and white supremacy, and the changes in climate occurring globally. We hope you will challenge yourselves to embrace the values of social, economic and environmental justice and be much needed change agents in your future careers as social workers.

Sincerely,

Joanne Corbin, PhD, LCSW

Dean, School of Social Work

School of Social Work Mission and Program Goals

Mission of the Adelphi University School of Social Work

The Adelphi University School of Social Work is a student-centered and engaged community that prepares reflective practitioners, leaders, scholars, and educators to work in collaboration with global and diverse communities in solving complex problems and producing knowledge. We prepare BSW, MSW, and doctoral students to be lifelong learners for effective, ethical, antiracist and anti-oppressive practice striving for social justice and human rights for a global and diverse society.

The MSW program goals of the AUSSW flow from its mission and are as follows:

Students are prepared to:

1. Identify manifestations of racism, colonization, white supremacy and patriarchy in our systems and policies that negatively impact individuals, groups and communities and to provide interventions that promote social justice and social change
2. Engage in practice with individuals, families, groups, organizations and communities across a range of human differences to promote human well being
3. Address unmet and emergent needs, and promote equity in access, information and provision of services to individuals, groups and communities;
4. Perform effective social work practice integrating a range of theoretically and empirically informed perspectives that acknowledge our complex and intersectional identities and histories and how they shape our experiences of injustice; and
5. Critically analyze power imbalances in organizational, sociocultural, economic, and political structures in order to dismantle oppressive and racist policies, systems, and practices regionally, nationally and globally.

Key Attributes of a Social Worker

The following standards, distinguished from academic standards, describe the physical, cognitive, emotional and character requirements to provide reasonable assurance that students can complete the entire course of study and participate fully in all aspects of social work education and practice.

Acquisition of competence as a social worker is a lengthy and complex process that will be undermined by significant limitations of the student's ability to participate in the full spectrum of the experiences and the requirements of the curriculum.

All students in the Adelphi University School of Social Work are expected to possess the following abilities and attributes at a level appropriate to their year in the program. They are expected to meet these standards in the classroom, in their practicum, and elsewhere. Attention to these standards will be part of evaluations made by faculty responsible for evaluating students' classroom and practicum performance. Failure to demonstrate these key attributes consistently may lead to termination from the program.

Communication Skills

The social work student must communicate effectively and sensitively with other students, faculty, staff, clients and other professionals. Students must express their ideas and feelings clearly and demonstrate a willingness and ability to listen to others. They must have sufficient skills in spoken and written English to understand the content presented in the program.

Self-Awareness

The social work student must know how their values, attitudes, beliefs, emotions and past experiences affect their thinking, behavior and relationships. The student must be willing to examine and change their behavior when it interferes with their work with clients and other professionals and must be able to work effectively with others in subordinate positions as well as with those in authority.

Professional Commitment

The social work student must have a strong commitment to the goals of social work and to the ethical standards of the profession. The student must be committed to the essential values of social work which are the dignity and worth of every individual and their right to a just share of society's resources.

Knowledge Base for Social Work Practice

The professional activities of social work students must be grounded in relevant social, behavioral and biological science knowledge and research. This includes knowledge and skills in relationship building, data-gathering, assessment, interventions and evaluation of practice.

Objectivity

The social work student must be sufficiently objective enough to systematically evaluate clients and their situations in an unbiased, factual way.

Empathy

The social work student must endeavor to seek to comprehend another individual's way of life and values. They must be able to communicate this empathy and support to the client as a basis for a productive professional relationship.

Energy

The social work student must be resilient when experiencing undesirable effects of stress, exercising appropriate self-care and developing cooperative and facilitative relationships with colleagues and peers.

Acceptance of Diversity

The social work student must appreciate the value of human diversity. They must serve in an appropriate manner all persons in need of assistance, regardless of the person's race, ethnicity, national origin, color, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, age, marital status, political belief, religion, immigration status, or mental or physical ability.

Interpersonal Skills

The student's social work must demonstrate the interpersonal skills needed to relate effectively to other students, faculty, staff, clients and other professionals. These include compassion, altruism, integrity, and the demonstration of respect for and consideration of others.

Professional Behavior

The student's social work must behave professionally by knowing and practicing within the scope of social work, adhering to the profession's code of ethics, respecting others, being punctual and dependable, prioritizing responsibilities, and completing assignments on time.

Core Competencies of Master's Level Social Work Education

The Council on Social Work Education, the accrediting agency for social work programs in the United States has identified nine (9) core competencies with which master's level social workers must graduate. These competencies are embedded in the learning outcomes of courses throughout the generalist curriculum and the specialized curricula.

The CSSW Office of Institutional Research and Evaluation uses a range of student-level data, including class assignments and field education scores and grades and other instructor ratings, to evaluate the extent to which the CSSW student body within the generalist and specialized years is achieving mastery of these competencies. Data are reviewed in aggregate form only. These data allow the faculty to monitor the overall effectiveness of the curriculum in the preparation of CSSW graduates with respect to these competencies. The competencies are listed below and can be reviewed in detail at <https://www.cswe.org/Accreditation/Standards-and-Policies/2015-EPAS>.

Competency 1: Demonstrate Ethical and Professional Behavior

Competency 2: Engage Diversity and Difference in Practice

Competency 3. Advance Human Rights and Social, Economic, and Environmental Justice

Competency 4: Engage in Practice-Informed Research and Research-Informed Practice

Competency 5. Engage in Policy Practice

Competency 6. Engage with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities

Competency 7. Assess Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities

Competency 8: Intervene with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities

Competency 9: Evaluate Practice with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities

Academic Residence

- Candidates for the MSW degree is expected to carry at least one course each semester and are expected to fulfill all degree requirements within the following time period from the start of graduate study:

M.S.W.—four years

MSW Special Programs

Human Service Professionals (HSP)

The Human Service Professionals (HSP) program is designed for human service workers who have two or more of the last five years of social work-related experience under the supervision of a social worker. As a result of the student's social work-related employment experience, HSP students are expected to complete one 900-hour practicum in the specialized year rather than the traditional mode of two - 450-hour practicums. The student's employer must agree to provide a 900-hour employment-based practicum under LMSW or LCSW supervision. Paid employees of agencies must meet all education requirements for practicum instruction, including demonstrated competency development, completion of process recordings, and all other requirements for their practicum instruction course. Employment based practicum students must carry out their practicum work responsibilities in a social work role clearly defined by the agency and known to its clients. Applicants to this program must submit documentation verifying years of employed experience, supervisory requirements met and verification of employer agreement to provide a practicum. The application will follow all other University and School processes in regard to processing the final decision and notifying the applicant.

Advanced Standing

The 32-credit Advanced Standing program is available only to graduates of CSWE-accredited baccalaureate social work programs who have earned the degree within the last five years. In some cases, the applicant is required to take additional courses prior to admission if the program from which they have the degree varies significantly from Adelphi's undergraduate social work curriculum. In addition to meeting all admission requirements for the MSW program, applicants must also have successfully completed the undergraduate curriculum and practicum experience from a CSWE accredited baccalaureate program.

Undergraduate students enrolled in Adelphi's BSW program, who earn a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher and successfully complete their junior practicum, will be invited to complete an expedited application. Requirements include a complete graduate application and a recommendation from the BSW program director, which includes an assessment of practicum performance. Students admitted have the option of deferring enrollment for up to one year. If not enrolled during that time, they would need to submit a full application to the University for admission consideration.

Provisional Student

For students who demonstrate the potential for academic and other standards, but do not meet all the criteria for acceptance, the student is accepted as a provisional student. Students accepted provisionally are advised to take a maximum of six credits in their first semester and will be required to earn a minimum grade of "B" in each course completed at AUSSW. If the provisional student does not meet the above criteria, they are dismissed from the program after the first semester. There is no appeal process for the dismissal of provisional students when they do not earn the minimum grades for each course. Students accepted as provisional do not begin their practicum work until their status is converted to degree candidacy. All provisional students are advised by Student Affairs personnel at respective sites and monitored throughout their provisional semester.

Professional and Academic Advising

All graduate students are assigned an advisor when they enter the program. Every student receives advisement throughout their academic program. The advisor is responsible for providing academic and professional guidance, program planning, course approval, practicum education planning and supervision, life and career goals, and any other related advisement tasks. The School of Social Work emphasizes a broad-based approach to advisement that covers more than decision making around classes, practicum placements and professional career choices; it also touches on maximizing potential, developing a professional self and raising the standard of ethical and sound practice.

When students first enter the program, they register and receive advisement from an admissions officer who is familiar with the academic program as well as the professional practice of social work. On the main campus in Garden City, this may be the Director of Outreach, Enrollment and Professional Advisement or one of the admissions staff specialists. At the extension centers, the advisement may be conducted by the Program Coordinator of the site, or a student affairs coordinator.

After the initial advisement and registration session(s), the student is assigned an advisor. If the student is entering practicum, a faculty practicum liaison is assigned who serves as academic advisor as well as liaison to the practicum placement. If the student is not entering practicum, studying as a part time student, taking academic classes only without practicum and practice, then the advisor is not a faculty practicum liaison. All advisors are faculty members, full-time or part-time, or social work administrators. Advisor assignments are made according to the student's status and the faculty workload. Faculty practicum liaisons are assigned by the practicum team. Where possible, the faculty practicum advisor will work with the same student throughout their program path. Advisors are assigned in the fall and spring entry terms as needed. Students can access their assigned advisor information in the student portal account in e-campus. Students assigned faculty practicum liaisons are informed of their advisor via email and e-campus at the beginning of the semester in which they start practicum placement. They may also find their assigned Liaison in the student portal account in e-campus. Liaisons are expected to meet with the student during the first two-four weeks of the semester in which they begin practicum. They maintain monthly, and as needed contact with the students and practicum instructors by email and phone and in-person or virtual appointments.

Orientation

All new students are required to attend a mandatory orientation to the graduate program. This orientation provides students with an overview of the University, the School of Social Work and University services. The orientation is coordinated by the Director of Student Affairs, the Director of Practicum Education and/or the student affairs coordinators for the campus based programs and the Director of the OMSW coordinates the online program orientation. Each orientation covers the same materials. The orientation provides students with a detailed review of the School's mission, graduate curriculum, core competencies and associated practice behaviors and technology including Moodle, CLASS and email. Administrative staff review the academic integrity and plagiarism policies of the school, NASW Code of Ethics and ethical standards and responsibilities required of social workers. Information about advisement, academic support services including the writing center, Access Services, counseling services and the learning center are provided to the students. Information about the Graduate Student Association, school events and networking opportunities are also shared with the students. Finally, all students are given information about the required Recitation Social Work Orientation taken in the first semester of study.

Administrative staff members review the academic integrity and plagiarism policies of the school, NASW Code of Ethics and ethical standards and responsibilities required of social workers. Information about advisement, academic support services including the writing center, Student Access Office, counseling services and the learning center are provided to the students. Information about the Graduate Student Association, school events and networking opportunities are also shared with the students. Finally, all students are given information about the required Recitation Social Work Orientation taken in the first semester of study. Every student receives advisement throughout their academic program. The advisor is responsible for addressing academic as well as professional advisement concerns, including program planning, course approval, practicum education planning and supervision, life and career goals, and any other related advisement tasks. The School of Social Work emphasizes a broad-based approach to advisement that covers more than decision making around classes, practicum, placements and professional career choices; it also touches on maximizing potential, developing a professional self and raising the standard of ethical and sound practice. When students first enter the program, they register and receive advisement from the Director of Outreach, Enrollment and Professional Advisement, who is familiar with the academic program as well as the professional practice of social work.

Registration

Students may enroll for non-matriculated study. Up to twelve credits may be taken as a non-matriculated student and practicum and practice courses are not available for enrollment. The Director of Outreach, Enrollment and Professional Advisement enrolls and advises any student registered as a non-degree seeking candidate. Non-degree seeking candidates participate in the new student orientation and are also required to enroll in the required Recitation Social Work Orientation in the first semester of study. Non-degree students are assigned to the respective student affairs coordinator for the program they are enrolled in for on-going advisement.

All students receive a copy of the MSW Course Planning Worksheet that lists all course requirements with pre-requisites, co-requisites and course sequences. This planning guide can be found in the Student Handbook. It is also online and available in print. Courses in the graduate program are taken sequentially, and some courses are taken as a requisite. Advisors and students alike must be familiar with the importance of following the planning worksheet to ensure that all requirements are met, and courses are taken in proper sequence. The Course Planning Worksheet is used in conjunction with the program paths to support students in planning their schedules. Not all courses are offered every semester. These guides are especially helpful in the advisement process as they individualize for students their course choices and their plans of study. For instance, students who are following a part-time program path with summer classes can plan ahead and anticipate their schedules. The School of Social Work follows the registration procedures established by the university. Students plan and register for their next semester classes at about the midpoint of the preceding semester. Registration is completed online and requires advisor approval for all course choices. Open planning is scheduled to reserve time for a review of their current academic grades and performance. Students are encouraged to keep in contact with their advisor throughout the semester for questions and support as needed and to discuss their expectations for the academic program, professional preparation and practicum education opportunities. Performance in the classroom, other related activities and practicum instruction are some of the areas that advisors focus on.

Classroom teachers who observe any problems including attendance, unethical behavior or poor academic work contacts the student 's advisor and/or the Office of Academic Affairs. In consultation with the advisor, the professor, the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs and if the student attends one of the extension centers, the director or the student affairs coordinator at the center, the student is offered counseling, writing assistance, peer or other tutoring, or other support services as indicated. A strong emphasis is placed on coordinating resources and supports to assist students who are at risk.

MSW Curriculum

Required On-line Learning Experience (ROLE)

The School of Social Work requires all new students to complete Required On-Line Learning Experience (ROLE) asynchronously (self-paced) on MOODLE. The purpose of ROLE is to equip students with information literacy, specifically on the basics on searching for scholarly literature and materials using the library search engine and databases as well as familiarizing students with the basics and mechanics of academic writing, the American Psychological Association (APA) publication style, an understanding of academic integrity and how to avoid plagiarism, and information on licensing.

Organization and Structure of the Master of Social Work Curriculum

All degree candidate students in the generalist year of the M.S.W. degree program must successfully complete the ten required courses:

- two on social welfare policy;
- two on theories of human behavior;
- two on theories of social work practice;
- one about diversity, oppression and cultural influences in social work practice;
- one in methods of empirical research; and
- Two supervised practicum internships.

In the specialist year, all students must successfully complete ten courses: five of which are required for the concentration in advanced contemporary direct practice:

- two courses in advanced social work practice;
- one course in assessment and diagnosis from a social work perspective;
- one course in advanced social work research;
- one course in organizational context for professional practice;
- one one-credit course in credentialing and licensing to meet residency requirements;
- three additional elective courses (students are required to take one that is designated as an integrative course, regular and another a clinical course); and
- Two supervised practicum internships.

All students enrolled in SWK510 Human Behavior I and all incoming specialized year students who did not receive their BSW from AUSSW will be required to complete this online training by the first five weeks of the semester in which they are admitted into the program.

Practicum Education:

Practicum education — the signature pedagogy of social work education — plays a pivotal role in student learning. Through internships in social service settings, students are provided with opportunities to apply knowledge learned in the classroom experience to social work practice with diverse populations in a broad range of agencies. Students develop professional skills and competence in practice during the course of their internships in working with people and communities. Students learn to bring their humanity and authenticity to their practice, to act with professional courage, and to develop a vision about making a contribution toward the amelioration of the significant social problems that face our society.

Practicum education is a unique partnership between the School and the agencies with which it affiliates. Through ongoing communication, the agencies and faculty practicum liaisons work towards the development of a shared educational philosophy and standards in designing and implementing a sound educational program for students.

For more information about the Practicum Education component of the program, please click on the following link: Practicum Education | School of Social Work | Adelphi University.

Please note that additional information can be found in the Practicum Education Manual that is posted on Sonia.

The practicum is structured as follows:

All MSW students must complete a minimum of 450 hours in a site-based practicum, and must earn 25 professional development hours each academic year through approved practicum education workshops and participation in the program's annual social action initiative.

Program Paths for Full and Part-Time Students

The MSW program has developed program paths to meet Full-Time and Part-Time students' needs and schedules as well as their qualifications. For detailed information please visit: Master's Degree in Social Work | MSW Programs in New York

The MSW Full-Time program can be completed over two years (fall, spring, fall and spring semesters; typically with no requirements for summer classes) or over sixteen months (spring, summer, fall and spring semesters; due to certain limitations, this option is only available for Garden City students). Students who meet the Specialized year criteria may complete their Full-Time program in one year (fall and spring semesters). Those who qualify for the Human Service Professional (HSP previously known as OYR) program may complete their full-time program in two years (fall, spring, and fall and spring semesters, with no summer classes).

For detailed information please visit: Program: Social Work, M.S.W. - Adelphi University - Modern Campus Catalog

The MSW Part-Time program can be completed over 3 (with the option of a fall or spring semester start) or 4 years. Typically all part-time students will take some classes during the summer, and may take between 6 to 10 credits in any given semester.

Bilingual School Social Work Program

The Bilingual School Social Work Program offers MSW students a certificate in bilingual school social work and requires an additional 6 credits that are completed at the College of Education and Health Sciences. This certificate is recognized by the New York State Education Department and is designed for bilingual individuals interested in working as bilingual social workers in a New York State primary or secondary school setting. This program can be completed either full-time for part-time with two courses on bilingual/multicultural education taken upon completing the MSW degree requirements.

- EBE (0804) 500: Foundations of Bilingual and Multicultural Education Credits: 3
- EBE (0804) 610: Methods and Material in Bilingual Education: Content Area Considerations Credits: 3

In addition, students must complete both these non-credit bearing courses:

- EDU (0801) 611 Child Abuse Seminar Credit 0
- EDU (0801) 614 Seminar Violence Prevention and Intervention for School Personnel Credits: 0

Human Resource management Certificate Program

Each candidate for the Advanced Certificate in Human Resources (ACHR) must complete all course requirements with a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0. Students who have taken MGT (0210) 561 or HRM (0208) 765 at Adelphi within the prior five years may apply the credits for those courses to fulfill the requirements for the ACHR. Students who have taken undergraduate courses in organizational behavior or organizational theory may request that the requirement for MGT (0210) 561 be replaced with either BUS (0204) 689 Negotiation for the Business Professional or MGT (0210) 791 Management Styles and Team Building instead.

For Students enrolled in the School of Social Work: they must apply to the Robert B. Willumstad School of Business prior to beginning the courses. If accepted, they may apply the credits for SWK (0404) 722 - Organization Context for Professional Practice to fulfill the MGT (0201) 561 requirements.

Required courses:

- MGT (2010) 561 Management Theory | Organizational Behavior Credits: 3
- HRM (0208) 764 Selecting for Organizational Excellence Credits: 3
- HRM (0208) 765 Developing World Class Human Resources
- HRM (0208) 766 Performance Appraisal and Compensation Administration Credits: 3
- HRM (0208) 767 Training and Career Development Credits: 3

Overview of the Online MSW Program (OMSW)

The Online MSW Program (OMSW) is a cohort-based, part-time MSW program that uses online instruction. Students participate in 5-6 virtual residencies over their 3 years of study and take a combination of virtual intensive synchronous and asynchronous online courses during the degree program. Practicum instruction is arranged near students' home community. As part of the admissions process, applicants must participate in an interview with the Director of Outreach, Enrollment and Professional Advisement.

Course Formats

The courses in the Online MSW program are based on the following formats:

1. Online (Synchronous and Asynchronous) -
 - a. These courses are delivered completely online either synchronously or asynchronously or a combination of both.
 - b. Synchronous class sessions are scheduled on Thursdays starting anytime between 6 PM and 8 PM
2. Intensive courses meet for one session during the residency and continue throughout the semester
3. Synchronous sessions may occur every other week on Thursdays between 6:00 PM and 9:50 PM on weeks in between, asynchronous learning occurs

Students are not allowed to enroll in courses offered in the traditional program, unless there are extenuating circumstances.

Virtual Residencies

Students are required to attend virtual residencies in January and August for the three years that they are enrolled in the OMSW program. The residencies meet from 8 AM to 6 PM over two days. Students take classes during the residencies, as well as interact with faculty and other cohorts during lunch.

Online Orientation: Fall and spring start students participate in an online orientation before the first residency. Summer start advanced standing students participate in an online orientation in early May before starting classes in late May. Students participate in an online technology orientation that provides them with an overview of the program and the technology utilized in courses. The online technology orientation is completed prior to the first residency. The director of the Online MSW program will email a link to new students' Adelphi email address. A brief orientation and technology training is provided during the first residency.

OMSW Peer Mentoring Program:

Students in the Online MSW program can either become a student mentor or request a student mentor be assigned to them, by contacting David Lau. OMSW student mentors develop and maintain relationships with new OMSW students, as well as support students as they transition into the program. Mentors offer advice regarding the program, courses, as well as the social work profession.

Absences

An absence in an online course consists of a student not completing the required coursework due in a given week or missing a synchronous session. Students are expected to notify their instructor 24 hours prior to any absence.

Excused absences are determined at the instructor's discretion and may require documentation of the reason for the absence. Excused absences from the residencies for illness or personal reasons (e.g., death in the family) must be made up. Make-up assignments for synchronous sessions or weekly assignments are at the discretion of the instructor.

Instructors will notify the Program Director of significant or a pattern of absences [both excused and unexcused] and provide copies of documentation for the student's file.

For students that miss part of a course offered during a residency, instructors may require students to complete a makeup assignment, at the discretion of the instructor or an alternative action at the instructor's discretion:

Any student who does not meet any of the above regulations will be automatically reviewed for continuation in the Online M.S.W. program.

Religious Observance

Students who are unable to participate fully in an academic residency on a particular day during the calendared residency dates for reasons of religious observance (e.g., Sabbath, Friday Prayers) must complete the Religious Observance Form and return it to the program director within 3 weeks of the start of the residency. Students are informed of the University Academic Calendar one month prior to the first day of each semester, including the summer semester.

Getting Started: Step-By-Step

Review the MSW Student Handbook: It will provide you with next steps, as well as be used as reference during the completion of your degree. The Student Handbook provides an overview of all functions and resources, as well as the rules, regulations, and procedures administered by the department. It is the responsibility of ALL graduate students to know and understand their degree requirements. Students are responsible for the fulfillment of those requirements.

Connect with your Academic Advisor: You will be working with Elizabeth Szpilka as your advisor during the initial enrollment. She can be reached at (516) 877-4384 or at eszpilka@Adelphi.edu. She will be making an appointment with you once open planning begins to discuss registration for the upcoming semester. You may contact the office of social work graduate admissions at 516-877-4360 should you have any questions before then. Your deposit must be paid prior to registration.

Setting up eCampus: If you haven't already paid your deposit, you can do so here. Once the deposit is paid you can set up eCampus. You will be assigned an eCampus username in order to access the many AU resources available to you online. This information will be sent to you about 72 hours after you have accepted Adelphi's offer of admission into the program. It's important to remember that your university email account and eCampus credentials are unique to you and your student account at Adelphi. They should never be shared with anyone.

Adelphi University Email: All registered Adelphi students are assigned an AU Gmail account that they can continue to use after graduation. AU Gmail and Google Apps are accessible using any desktop, laptop or mobile device with an internet connection. After you log into eCampus, click on the “Student Gmail” icon under the “Services” tab. Save it as one of your “Favorite Services” to access more easily on future visits. Student and alumni email addresses end with @mail.adelphi.edu. Faculty and staff email addresses end with @adelphi.edu. Note: After initial email setup all other academic and administrative communication while in this degree program will be through your Adelphi email address. Do not continue to use your personal email to communicate during the program. You are expected to regularly check your Adelphi email for new communication throughout the program.

ID Cards: If you would like to obtain an Adelphi University ID card you can visit Public Safety on the 1st floor of Levermore or email a request to student_photoid@adelphi.edu. This email must be sent from your AU Gmail account and must include the following:

- Full name
- Emergency contact information (name, phone number)
- Copy of your driver's license
- A clear picture of yourself with a plain background. No hats may be worn in the photo. This picture can be taken with a computer camera; however we recommend obtaining a passport picture.

If you do not receive your ID within 14 days of submitting your request, please contact Public Safety at (516)877-3511.

Emergency Alert System Registration: Once you have received your ID, you may customize your information on the Rave Alert emergency notification system, which instantly broadcasts urgent messages and delivers instructions to the campus community. To access the Rave Alert Emergency Notification System, login to eCampus and click “Services”. Then select the “Rave Alert” icon, which will bring you to a new page. You can select and input your contact information here. Please check with your individual faculty member for each course to determine if a campus closing impacts any work assigned in the course.

Registering for Courses: New students currently register for courses, via Zoom with Elizabeth Szpilka, the Director of Outreach, Enrollment and Professional Advisement. Continuing students register online which must be approved by their assigned academic advisor or faculty practicum liaison. Students register for courses using C.L.A.S.S. (Course Listing, Advisement and Student Services), which is a service found in eCampus. Please wait until after your welcome call with your advisor to register. This will ensure that you are registering for the correct courses.

Accessing my courses (Moodle): During your orientation, you will be able to view tutorials on various tools in Moodle. Once the semester begins, you can log into Moodle and access your courses. Courses follow a 15-week calendar, except for summer courses, which follow the 10-week summer calendar.. Moodle is Adelphi’s web-based course management system for online, blended and on-campus courses. You will use Moodle to access course materials, take quizzes or tests, submit assignments, engage in class discussions, and more.

Registered students can access Moodle via Adelphi's eCampus portal. Click the "Moodle" icon on your My eCampus homepage under the "Enrolled Courses" section. Or you can login directly via this link. Bookmark the ecampus and Moodle links for future reference. Please note: If you do not see your course on Moodle, it means that the instructor has not yet made the course available to students.

You can also find the "Moodle" icon under the "Services" tab on eCampus. For easier access, you can save the "Moodle" icon as one of you "Favorite Services."

Planning Guidelines for the MSW Students

When planning your academic program for completion of M.S.W. degree requirements, please adhere to the following registration policies and procedures below:

Students and advisers must ensure that prerequisite and/or corequisite requirements are met and courses are taken in their proper sequence (see Program Planning Worksheet).

Students must complete degree requirements within four years from the semester in which they first matriculated.

All generalist level courses must be taken before starting any advanced courses.

If a student earns a failing grade in any generalist level course (this includes all practicum courses), a student may not proceed to specialized level course work. If a student has an incomplete grade in any generalist level course (this includes all practicum courses), the incomplete must be resolved prior to entering the specialized level of course work.

Students in Practicum Placement register for Section 01 of their practicum course.

Students must take their practice courses and practicum instruction together as co-requisites.

Generalist Year students take SWK 520 with Practicum Instruction I (SWK 690) and SWK 521 with Practicum Instruction II (SWK 691).

Specialized Year students take SWK 780 (typically offered in Fall) with Practicum Instruction III (SWK 790) and SWK 776 as a co-requisite; and in the Spring semester, students will take SWK 782 (typically offered in Spring) with Practicum Instruction IV (SWK 791).

*To meet NYS Education Department residency requirements, all specialized year MSW students are required to take the one-credit hybrid 776 course in the Fall semester of their specialized year. Note that 51% (8 hours) of the instruction for SWK 776 will be done in-person at the Garden City Campus and (7 hours) of asynchronous instruction. It is important that you pick the section based on your availability for the in-person session.

Specialized year elective courses are offered in the fall, spring, and summer semesters. Students may not take electives in their generalist year.

All MSW students will be required to take three (3) electives; one must be designated “I” (integrative) and another “C” (Clinical), regardless of whether or not they choose a specialization. The integrative designation, in their specialized year towards the completion of the MSW degree¹.

All MSW students must take SWK 780 and SWK 782 as the specialized year direct practice courses.

Students should be certain that all degree requirements are being met, including a cumulative GPA of 3.0, and that courses are properly sequenced. An error in registration sequencing could delay graduation and result in additional tuition costs.

All students in the specialized year complete a concentration in advanced contemporary direct practice that includes the following courses: SWK 710, 722, 758, 780, 782.²

¹ An integrative course (an “I” designated course) supports a graduate MSW student's capacity to synthesize all aspects of the social work curriculum – theory, practice, policy and research – within a coherent framework of understanding, inquiry, analysis and knowledge development. A clinical course (a “C” designated course) is required to meet the NYS Licensing requirements.

² Registration policies and procedures are subject to change.

Academic Guidelines and Policies

Academic and Professional Advising:

All graduate students are assigned an advisor when they enter and throughout the academic program. The advisor is responsible for providing academic and professional guidance, including but not limited to program planning, course approval, practicum education planning and supervision, life and career goals. If the student is entering the practicum, a faculty practicum liaison is assigned who serves as academic advisor as well as liaison to the practicum placement. If the student is not entering the practicum, studying as a part-time student, taking academic classes only without practicum and practice, then the advisor is not a practicum liaison. All advisors are faculty members, full-time or part-time, or social work administrators. New advisor assignments are made each academic year.

Degree Requirements:

Students must complete degree requirements (64-credits) within four years from the semester in which they first matriculated. Students must maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.0 in order to qualify for graduation. Maintaining good standing is also important for financial aid purposes, please see section on Satisfactory Academic Progress. Students who do not have a 3.0 GPA in their last semester will not be allowed to graduate.

Engagement in Social Action Learning Activities:

In recognition of the values, guiding principles, professional standards, and educational mandates of social work, Adelphi University School of Social Work affirms its enduring commitment to nurturing competencies in social action among our students.

Social action initiatives address important areas of social justice to create an impact in our communities while providing opportunities for our social work students to learn skills of social action. All graduate social work students enrolled in field courses during the current academic year are required to participate in the social action initiative. Students who are not enrolled in field courses are encouraged to voluntarily participate in these social action projects as well. These student-centered social action activities honor our students' choices, preferences, and leadership skills. Types of projects include:

- Films of expert interviews
- Social media campaigns
- Twitter Q&As news
- VideosStoryCorps interviews
- Legislative advocacy
- Posters for academic conference

A significant priority in this effort is to assure opportunities for student engagement in activities of social action to complement their coursework in all sequences during their formative education in order to develop knowledge, practice skills, and values for social action. Social action learning activities will be facilitated through partnership among the School's students, faculty, administrators, and staff.

The program's Social Action Committee, comprising faculty, administrators, and student members, will coordinate a diversity of social action learning activities each year in order to assure equitable access to sufficient social action learning activities across all social work academic programs and centers.

Accountability for participation will be supported through procedures wherein students document their participation in and analysis of social action learning activities through the use of process recordings and timesheets that are reviewed by practicum instructors and faculty practicum liaisons. Reasonable accommodations for student hardships and learning needs will be assured.

Transfer of Credits:

Students who have taken graduate courses in a CSWE accredited graduate program or an accredited graduate program in an allied practicum, comparable to an MSW level course at AUSSW may request a transfer of credit. The course must have been taken within five years of matriculation, with a grade of B or better. The School of Social Work will consider up to 12 credits for transfer. The program does not accept life/work experience for transfer into the program. To make a request, students must submit the following to our Office of Graduate Admissions:

- An official transcript
- Course syllabus that provides a description of the course, the assigned readings, and assignments.

The Director of Outreach, Enrollment and Professional Advisement, in consultation with the Associate Dean and the respective sequence chair, will assess the comparability of the course(s) to an existing Adelphi course. If the graduate credit is approved for transfer, students do not have to take another course in its place. A placing-out exam may be required at the discretion of the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs. Only courses completed for graduate credit may be transferred.

Course Waivers:

Waivers are granted selectively on an individual basis. Students who have taken a graduate course comparable to an MSW course at the AUSSW may request a course waiver. The course must have been taken within five years of matriculation, with a grade of B or better and students must submit the following to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs:

- An official transcript
- Course syllabus that provides a description of the course, the assigned readings, and assignments.

The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, in consultation with the sequence chair, will assess if the course corresponds to the Adelphi course. If the course is considered comparable, students will be required to take a placing-out exam. If students pass the exam with a grade of B or better—the course is waived, and they must take another course in its place. Only courses completed for graduate credit may be waived.

Repetition of Courses:

Students who earned a grade of F in any required course must repeat the course. Students repeating a course do not earn additional credits toward graduation. The original F grade remains on the student's record, and will count towards the student's GPA along with the new grade earned for the repeated course. Students' transcripts record all courses taken, along with grades earned, at Adelphi University, including any late course withdrawals.

Course Repeat Policy

Only courses with a grade of Fail (F) including those received from an Incomplete Fail can be repeated.

Students may repeat up to 7 credits in both the generalist and specialist level.

Students must re-register and pay for the course in order to repeat it.

Students are expected to repeat courses the next time they are offered (unless under a probation contract or other administrative contract).

Caution: Not all courses are offered every semester. In some cases, repeating courses may require waiting a semester or a year when the course is again offered. No exceptions will be made to take the course(s) in the OMSW program (for in-seat students).

A student may not take a course later in the sequence if they have failed a course earlier in that sequence. (e.g., if the earlier course is a prerequisite).

If a student repeats a classroom course, the previous grade stays on the transcript, but only the most recent grade becomes part of their GPA calculation. If the student failed the course the first time (thereby receiving no credit) and passes on the second attempt, then credit toward graduation is granted for the second attempt.

Students may be dismissed from the program when a required course is not passed after the second attempt.

Dropping or withdrawing from a course does not use up a student's chances to repeat courses.

For students on academic probation contracts:

- Repeating courses does not alter probation contracts.
- Students should note that most academic probation contracts require them not to drop or withdraw from courses. If a student is on academic probation, they should be aware of the conditions stated in their probationary contracts).
- For students on academic probation, a course must be repeated for credit and the grade as specified in the academic probation contract.

This policy is not applicable to students accepted provisionally.

Please see the Practicum Education Manual for the practicum course repeat policy.

Good Academic Standing and Academic Probation

Graduate students must maintain a B (3.0) cumulative grade-point average (GPA) in order to be in good academic standing. Any graduate student with a GPA between 2.5 and 2.99 at the end of any semester (or its equivalent) in the program will be placed on probation. Students on probation are informed in writing from the program. Any graduate student on probation who does not raise his or her GPA to 3.0 by the end of the probationary semester will be subject to dismissal from the program. The probationary semester is defined as the equivalent of either one full-time semester or two part-time semesters. Full-time students placed on academic probation are strongly advised to move to part-time student status in order to focus on improving academic performance. For all students on academic probation, an academic probation contract is generated that must be reviewed and signed by the student placed on probation. It is a requirement of continuing matriculation that students on academic probation meet with a designated administrator in the program's office of academic affairs to review the contract and develop an educational plan to attain good standing in the program. Any graduate student with a GPA below 2.5 at any point in his or her experience at the program will be subject to dismissal from the program.

Note 1: For part-time students on academic probation, students must meet the terms of their first academic probation contract (first semester on probation) in order to advance to the second and final academic probation contract (final semester on probation). Failure to meet the terms of the first contract may result in dismissal from the program.

Note 2: Students on probation cannot take a leave of absence, withdraw from any class, or receive an incomplete in any course during the time they are on probation. Failure to comply with this will result in termination from the program.

Note 3: Any student academically dismissed from the program must wait one year before being considered for readmission to the program.

Satisfactory Academic Progress

In addition to maintaining good standing in the MSW Program, all students receiving federal financial aid are required to maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) in order to continue receiving such aid. The definition of SAP contains both a qualitative measure (GPA) and quantitative standard (i.e. the number of credits the student has successfully completed). Students who have been denied financial aid because they have failed to maintain SAP may appeal this decision if there were mitigating circumstances beyond the students' control which affected their academic progress. Examples of extenuating circumstances include medical emergencies or health issues or unforeseen personal emergencies. The university's student financial service. Students who have been notified that they have failed to meet SAP may appeal this decision through the Office of Academic Affairs of the AUSSW. Students whose appeal has been approved by the office of the ADAA will be placed on an individualized academic plan. Failure to meet the terms of the academic plan will result in the loss of future eligibility for federal financial aid until the student is meeting the school's academic progress requirements.

Provisional Student

Students accepted provisionally are advised to take a maximum of six credits in their first semester and will be required to earn a minimum grade of “B” in each course completed at AUSSW. The student’s progress is reviewed throughout the semester for professional standards and academic performance. If the provisional student does not meet the above criteria, they are dismissed from the program after the first semester. There is no appeal process for the dismissal of provisional students when they do not earn the minimum grades for each course. Students accepted as provisional do not begin their practicum work until their status is converted to degree candidacy. All provisional students are advised by Student Affairs personnel at respective sites and monitored throughout their provisional semester.

Attendance Policies

Attendance

Course syllabi provide expectations pertaining to class attendance and punctuality. Students are required to attend all classes. Please notify your instructors via email if you know you will be absent or immediately after missing a class. It is the student’s responsibility to make up for the missing material. To make up for missed classes, students may be required at the request of the instructor to submit the assignment prior to the next class.

To be eligible for a passing grade no more than two unexcused absences are allowed for a 15-week course. For ten-week courses students are allowed one unexcused absence. Excused absences include religious and spiritual observations, late registration, health and unexpected events, planned events relating to family, personal, or professional commitments. Documentation may be required for excused absences. Instructors have discretion to determine how more than the allotted absences may impact a student’s grade and should indicate their expectations in the syllabi or Moodle shell.

Program stop outs

Graduate students in good academic standing requesting a personal leave should submit a written request to the associate dean for academic affairs. The request must include the reason for the personal leave and the expected date of return to school. A maximum of one year leave is permitted. Students who are approved for a personal leave of absence are blocked from registering for classes. When the student returns and is ready to register, the block is lifted. A written request to return following a leave is required. In order to retain earned credits, the student must return to school within five years of the course(s) completed. A student must be in good academic standing, defined as having a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0, in order to be eligible to request a personal leave of absence.

Religious Observances

If you anticipate being unable to complete one or more course assignments by their due date as a result of any religious observances, you must notify the instructor of this conflict within the first week of class. The instructor will work with you in making alternative arrangements to satisfy any missed coursework.

Leaves of Absence

A student in good academic standing may apply for either a personal leave or medical leave of absence, depending on the reason for the leave. They are processed by two different offices, depending on the type of leave students qualify for:

Personal Leave of Absence

Graduate students in good academic standing requesting a personal leave should submit a written request to the Director of Student Affairs. The request must include the reason for the personal leave and the expected date of return to school. A maximum of one year leave is permitted. Students who are approved for a personal leave of absence are blocked from registering for classes. When the student returns and is ready to register, the block is lifted. A written request to return to the Associate Dean/MSW Director following a leave is required. In order to retain earned credits, the student must return to school within five years of the course(s) completed. A student must be in good academic standing, defined as having a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0, in order to be eligible to request a personal leave of absence.

Note: Students on probation cannot take a leave of absence, withdraw from any class, or receive an incomplete in any course during the time they are on probation. Failure to comply with this will result in termination from the program.

Medical Leave of Absence (MLOA)

The Office of Academic Services and Retention sets deadlines each semester for requests for MLOAs. Please check the academic calendar for semester-specific deadlines: oasr@adelphi.edu

Submit all letters to the Office of Academic Services via email to: oasr@adelphi.edu

1. Students shall request leave in writing and state reason(s) for the leave request.
2. Students shall submit letter from licensed health care provider(s), which contains the following pieces of information:
 - a. Diagnosis;
 - b. The duration of treatment prior to request;
 - c. Plans for treatment during period of leave (if appropriate); and
 - d. A positive recommendation that the leave is necessary for medical reasons.
3. Adelphi University retains the right to obtain supplemental medical information.
4. All requests and documentation must be made during the first 10 weeks of the semester for which the leave is requested.
5. Requests for medical leaves will not be considered after the end of the 10th week of the semester. If appropriate, the grade of incomplete may be issued. Emergency situations occurring after the 10th week will be dealt with on a case by case basis.

6. If a medical leave is approved all current and future courses for which the student is registered will be dropped. The student will not be able to register until cleared by her/his health care provider and be readmitted to the University. See below for details.

When students are planning to return from their MLOA, submit all letters to the Office of Academic Services via email at: oasr@adelphi.edu

1. Students must request readmission.
2. Students must submit a letter from a licensed healthcare provider.
 - a. If possible, the letter should be from the same provider who recommended the leave.
 - b. If that person is unable to provide the letter, a health care professional from the same specialty may provide the letter.
 - c. The letter must contain:
 - i. Treatment that has taken place during the leave;
 - ii. If needed, treatment plans after return from leave;
 - iii. Any recommended restrictions (i.e., reduced credit load);
 - iv. Statement that student is medically able to return to school; and
 - v. Recommendation regarding student's ability to return as a student and to function successfully while attending school.
3. Adelphi University retains the right to obtain supplemental medical information.
4. Upon readmission copies of the medical documentation for the leave and the return will be filed with the Adelphi Health Services Center.

Student Pregnancy and Parent Leave

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 ("Title IX"), 20 U.S.C. §1681 et seq., is a Federal civil rights law that prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex—including pregnancy and parental status—in educational programs and activities.

Policy Statement

Accordingly, and in broad recognition of the challenges of balancing the demands of academic study and caring for and bonding with a new child, this policy is intended to further Adelphi University's commitment to supporting programs and services to help student parents to meet their family care obligations while they pursue their academic goals. The Policy assists students immediately prior to and/or immediately following the birth or adoption of a child. The purpose of the Policy is to make it possible for a student to maintain registered full-time or part-time student status, along with all the benefits of such status, while facilitating academic progress and a return to coursework and, where applicable, research and teaching in a seamless manner. Student Pregnancy and Parental Leave | Adelphi University

Withdrawals

Dropping and Withdrawing from a course

Students who wish to drop a course from their program after they have processed their initial registration can drop the course using the CLASS system until the deadlines stated on the academic calendar. Students are advised that there is a fee for dropping courses. Dropped courses will not appear on the transcript. Students should be aware that dropping a course may also affect their financial aid.

Withdrawals from courses are possible after the deadline to drop courses but no later than the ninth week of the semester, the third week of a summer term or the second week of a one month term. Students who wish to withdraw from a course must complete a Schedule Form, obtain appropriate signatures of academic approval and process the form in the Office of the University Registrar by the deadlines stated in the academic calendar. Withdrawals from courses appear on the transcript as a “W”. Nonattendance in a course does not constitute an official drop or withdrawal from a course. The student’s failure to drop or withdraw properly from a course does not preclude the instructor from submitting a grade for the student on the basis of the work previously submitted.

Withdrawing from the MSW program

Students who are considering a full withdrawal from the MSW program should contact their advisor to arrange an exit interview. Following the interview, students should submit an online withdrawal form. Once this form is processed, the student will be terminated from the university and must reapply for admission to the MSW Program.

Students who withdraw from the MSW program must notify One Stop if they have been receiving financial aid. Students will be held responsible for related tuition and fees.

Readmission into MSW Program

Students who wish to return to the MSW program after withdrawing will be required to submit a new application for admission. Readmission to the program is reviewed on a case-by-case basis.

Reapplication

To be considered a Readmit Applicant, students must submit an application and meet the following criteria:

- Adelphi students who have not registered for 2 or more consecutive semesters (including summer, as p/t program paths require summer enrollment)
- Students who have withdrawn from Adelphi for a year or more and decided to re-enroll
- Students who left Adelphi on probation or were dismissed

Provisional students cannot be readmitted if they are academically dismissed

Academic Forgiveness Readmission

Former students who did not meet their academic requirements can seek readmission under this policy and have their GPA be reset to 0.0 if they meet the required terms.

When a former Adelphi graduate student has been away from the University for at least three years and had a GPA of less than 3.0 and is offered admission or readmission to an Adelphi graduate program (based on the admission standards of that program). The student will be admitted or readmitted under a final probation contract to be developed according to standards of the graduate program. The student's GPA would be calculated without previous graduate grades, although all previous classes and grades would remain on the student's transcript.

Students who desire to apply for academic forgiveness must do so at the time they apply for readmission to the University. Students who are candidates for academic forgiveness are readmitted under final probation contract. The academic forgiveness contract is prepared, reviewed and signed by the student and appropriate dean of the student's school. The student will be granted Academic forgiveness if the terms of contract have been met and Onestop will be notified to have the student's transcript reflect academic forgiveness. Please note Academic forgiveness can only be granted once.

To be considered for the academic forgiveness readmission students must complete the Request for Academic Forgiveness Form and forward to the Office of Academic Services & Retention at the time of readmission.

Please note: Students who are readmitted after 5 or more years must repeat all coursework.

Grading Policy

Letter grades are awarded for all MSW courses with the exception of practicum instruction, which is graded Pass/Fail.

Each course syllabus outlines the instructor's expectations and grading policy, which may include factors that may influence students' final grades for that course (e.g., lateness of submission, class participation, attendance etc.). In addition, all instructors may use the following criteria to evaluate student's assignments:

- Mastery of course content;
- Critical thinking;
- Organization of material;
- Writing ability;
- Integration and application of course content to social work; and

- Ability to conceptualize.

Letter Grade	Definition
A (4.0) = 93 and above A- (3.7) = 90–92	A is awarded for excellent work
B+ (3.3) = 87–89 B (3.0) = 83–86 B- (2.7) = 80–82	B is awarded for good work
C+ (2.3) = 77–79 C (2.0) = 73–76 C- (1.7) = 70–72	C is awarded for marginal work
F (0.0) = 69 and below	F is awarded for failing work

Social Work Incomplete Policy

A grade of incomplete (I) is given by an instructor when the student has not completed the course requirements by the end of the semester and has obtained permission from the instructor to take additional time to complete the course work. The following guidelines apply:

- When a student has completed 60 percent of the work in the course and is doing passing work;
- When the instructor believes the student can successfully complete the requirements of the course.
- Attendance has been satisfactory for at least 60% of the term; (For online courses this is measured by participation in discussions and timely completion of assigned work).
- An illness or other exceptional, compelling circumstances prevents completion of required work by the due date;
- Required work may reasonably be completed in an agreed-upon time frame (two weeks before the start of the semester following the semester in which the incomplete was given); please note that students are required to complete all work for a prerequisite course before registering for a course that comes later in the sequence)
- The incomplete is not given as a substitute for a failing grade;
- The incomplete is not given to students who fall behind or as a means of raising his or her grade by doing additional work;
- The student initiates the request for an incomplete grade before the end of the academic term.
- The student provides documentation, an acceptable reason for not completing the work on time and a plan for how they will complete the work
- An incomplete requires a contract between the instructor and the student which is recorded in the CLASS system;
- If an incomplete is granted the student is expected to fulfill all the terms of the incomplete contract.
- An unfulfilled incomplete contract automatically turns to an F after one year.

Once an incomplete contract is granted, the student is expected to fulfill all the terms agreed upon with the instructor. The student can request more time from the instructor. However, students with any outstanding I grade (not resolved before the next semester) cannot proceed to the next level. Grades will convert to an F in cases when students fail to submit the assignment by the agreed-upon deadline.

Practicum Instruction Course Grades

Practicum instruction grades are conferred by the Faculty practicum Liaison and are limited to a Grade of Pass, Fail, or Incomplete. Criteria for professional performance in practicum education are found in the MSW Practicum Education Manual.

Academic Integrity

Students are expected to adhere to the academic and professional standards of the AUSSW, which are stipulated in this handbook. See sections on requirements for graduation, academic probation, academic dishonesty, and rights and responsibility.

The Code of Academic Integrity prohibits any behavior, whether in-person or remote, that can broadly be described as lying, cheating, or stealing. Violations of the Code of Academic Integrity will include, but not be limited to, the following:

1. Fabricating data or citations
2. Collaborating in areas not approved by the professor
3. Unauthorized multiple submission of one's own work
4. Sabotage of others' work, including library vandalism or manipulation
5. Plagiarism
6. Inappropriate use of AI
7. The creation of unfair advantage
8. The facilitation of dishonesty
9. Tampering with or falsifying records
10. Cheating
11. Other forms of academic dishonesty

Students are expected to be familiar with the Adelphi University Code of Conduct.

Honor Code

The University is an academic community devoted to the pursuit of knowledge. Fundamental to this pursuit is academic integrity. In joining the Adelphi community, I accept the University's Statement of Academic Integrity and pledge to uphold the principles of honesty and civility embodied in it. I will conduct myself in accordance with ideals of truth and honesty and I will forthrightly oppose actions that would violate these ideals.

School of Social Work Academic Integrity Policy

A faculty member who suspects that a student has committed a violation of the Academic integrity policy shall review the facts and circumstances of the suspected violation with the student whenever possible prior to triggering submission to the Academic standards Committee. Faculty members shall report all incidents they consider to be academic dishonesty on the Faculty Report Form and shall submit the Form to the Director of Student Affairs.

The Director of Student Affairs shall update the Faculty Report Form after a suspected incident has been resolved to reflect that resolution and shall place the Form in a confidential academic integrity file created for each student alleged to have violated the Academic Integrity Policy and shall retain each Form for the purposes of identifying repeat offenders, gathering data, and assessing and reviewing policies. Unless they exonerate the student, written decisions on academic integrity matters after adjudication also shall be placed in the student's academic integrity file. The Student Relations Specialist shall be responsible for maintaining students' academic integrity files.

Level I

Student Admits to the Academic Dishonesty and Does Not Contest the Academic Sanction.

If a faculty member wishes to seek only an academic sanction (i.e., a reduced grade) and the student does not contest either his/her guilt or the particular reduced grade the faculty member has chosen, then the student shall be given the reduced grade. The reduced grade may apply to the particular assignment as to which the violation occurred or to the course grade, at the faculty member's discretion. A reduced grade may be an "F" or another grade that is lower than the grade that the student would have earned but for the violation. The faculty member shall complete the Faculty Report Form to reflect that resolution.

Student Admits to the Academic Dishonesty but Contests the Academic Sanction.

In a case where a student admits to the alleged academic dishonesty but contests the particular academic sanction imposed, the student may appeal the academic sanction through the grade appeal process. The student shall be allowed, at a minimum, an opportunity to present a written position with supporting evidence. The Committee reviewing the appeal shall issue a written decision explaining the justification for the academic sanction imposed.

Student Denies the Academic Dishonesty

In a case where a student denies academic dishonesty, a fact-finding determination shall be made, by the Director of Student Affairs. At a minimum, the student shall be provided with a (i) written notice of the charges against him or her; (ii) the right to appear before the academic standards Committee; and (iii) the right to present witness statements and/or to call witnesses. Academic Standards Committees shall issue written decisions and send copies of their decisions to the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs.

Level II: Procedures in Cases Involving Academic Standards

Where a matter proceeds to the Academic Standards Committee the Committee shall promptly report its resolution to the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs who will inform the faculty member and file a record of the resolution in the student's confidential academic integrity file.

A student will be reported to Academic Standards only if (i) there is a substantial violation; (ii) the student has previously violated the Policy; or (iii) academic sanctions may not be imposed because the student has timely withdrawn from the applicable course.

Examples of substantial violations include infractions that are similar to criminal activity (such as forging a grade form; stealing an examination from a professor or a university office; having a substitute take an examination or taking an examination for someone else; sabotaging another student's work through actions designed to prevent the student from successfully completing an assignment

Determination on academic vs. disciplinary sanction

The Academic Standards Committee shall determine whether to seek a disciplinary sanction, an academic sanction or both. In making this determination, the Academic Standards Committee shall consult with the faculty member who initiated the case, with student affairs and/or academic affairs administrators as needed. Before determining which sanction(s) to seek, the Academic Standards Committee also shall consult the student's confidential academic integrity file, if any, to determine whether the student has been found to have previously committed a violation of the Academic Integrity Policy, the nature of the infraction, and the sanction imposed or action taken.

If the Academic Standards Committee finds that the alleged violation occurred, then the faculty member may reflect that finding in the student's grade.

If the Academic Standards Committee seeks to have both a disciplinary and an academic sanction imposed, the Committee shall proceed first with the academic sanction and await its outcome before addressing the disciplinary proceeding.

If the Academic Standards Committee finds that the alleged violation did not occur, then no sanction of any kind may be imposed.

Required Action in Cases of No Violation

If the Academic Standards Committee finds that no violation occurred, the Student Relations Specialist shall remove all materials relating to that incident from the student's confidential academic integrity file and destroy the material.

Generative AI, Ethics, and the Classroom

Artificial Intelligence (AI) has revolutionized numerous industries, and one of its most intriguing subfields is Generative AI. Generative AI refers to a subset of AI models and algorithms designed to generate new content, imitate patterns from existing data, and create novel outputs. This technology has garnered immense interest due to its creative capabilities and practical applications. However, as college students, it is essential to understand the ethical considerations and limitations surrounding Generative AI to ensure its responsible use.

Unauthorized Recording Policy

In accordance with the code of ethics of the National Association of Social Work and to cultivate an environment that is conducive to the free exchange of ideas, AUSSW prohibits unauthorized recordings in the classroom including audio, video, or photographic recordings. Secretly recording any conversation is not permitted, whether in person, over the phone, or by any other medium.

1. Any recording or attempt to record, inside the classroom or elsewhere, requires prior consent from the instructor. Instructors may seek the permission of other members of the class before providing consent
2. Instructors may record course sessions to make them available for future use and to support necessary accommodations for a documented disability if requested by the Student Access Office

3. Violations of this policy may result in a referral to academic standards and or dismissal from the program.

Netiquette

Proper “network etiquette” should be observed in your postings on the Internet, whether over email, message boards, or class chat sessions. Bad netiquette includes using profanity, personal attacks, emoticons, exclamation points, or UPPER CASE (shouting) to make your point. Re-read your messages carefully before you post, checking spelling, grammar, and tone. Your contributions should be of interest to several readers; don’t just post “I agree” responses.

Social Work Values and Responsibilities

NASW Code of Ethics:

(From the NASW website, link to the full text and entire Code of Ethics is below)

The NASW Code of Ethics is a set of standards that guide the professional conduct of social workers. The 2021 update includes language that addresses the importance of professional self-care. Moreover, revisions to the Cultural Competence standard provide more explicit guidance to social workers. All social workers should review the new text and affirm their commitment to abide by the Code of Ethics. Also available in Spanish.

The NASW Code of Ethics offers a set of values, principles and standards to guide decision-making and everyday professional conduct of social workers. It is relevant to all social workers and social work students regardless of their specific functions or settings.

Policies and Procedures to Address Academic Standards

Academic Standards Committee (ASC)

*It is important to note that the Academic Standards Committee reviews student compliance with the criteria, policies and procedures for both Academic and Professional Performance. ****

The Academic Standards Committee (ASC) is composed of social work faculty and administrators charged with developing academic and professional standards as well as conducting panel meetings to review reports related to students’ unethical and/or unprofessional behavior (professional performance) and recommending appropriate action to the dean.

The ASC has four roles:

1. Develops and recommends academic and professional standards for students in consultation with faculty;
2. Serves as a consultative committee to faculty practicum liaisons, classroom teachers, and academic advisers regarding professional conduct of students;

3. Conducts hearings and makes recommendations to the associate dean for academic affairs about M.S.W. students facing possible dismissal based on professional performance and conduct in practicum education or professional community; and
4. Serves as an appeal committee for M.S.W. students who challenge dismissal based on academic grades.

Reasons for referral to the ASC include, but are not limited to a report of poor academic performance, unethical and/or professional behavior by the students, submitted by the practicum instructor, the faculty practicum liaison, a classroom instructor or other persons relevant to the student's educational program:

- Failure to maintain GPA as described under "Grading Policies;"
- Absence from practicum without notification;
- Breach of confidentiality;
- Inappropriate relationships and/or boundary problems with clients, staff or other students;
- Failure to disclose a potential conflict or threat;
- Impairment due to alcohol or drug abuse;
- Threatening behavior to clients or others;
- Behaviors that violate the NASW Code of Ethics;
- Failure or at risk for failing to meet practicum instruction criteria as outlined in the practicum Education Manual; and
- Any action, behavior or decision that reflects poor judgment, lack of insight, and/or limited decision-making skills.

Suspected Academic Dishonesty

All cases of suspected academic dishonesty will be treated seriously, and will launch a series of actions by course instructor, faculty adviser or faculty practicum liaison, the Director of Student Affairs. Consistent with University policy, the course instructor, the Director of Student Affairs and in consultation with the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs/MSW Program Director. will decide whether the suspected dishonesty is of an egregious or non-egregious nature. Egregious dishonesty may include—but is not limited to—cheating on an exam, buying a paper, or stealing a portion or all of someone else's paper. All second offenses are treated as egregious, regardless of the type of dishonesty.

Students are encouraged to take advantage of the libraries and the School of Social Work's resources, the Writing Center, tutoring, uploading drafts to Turnitin (which instructors can set up on course websites), instructor office hours, and other resources for avoiding plagiarism.

Examples of classroom instructors' options for enforcing these standards include but are not limited to giving reduced or failing grades for an assignment or entire course, assignment of additional work, referring the student to supports such as the Writing Center, Student Counseling Center, their faculty advisor, or (if applicable) Office of Student Access, or requiring an apology or some other effort to repair a disrupted classroom process. Under the doctrine of academic freedom as operationalized in university policy, instructors have sole authority over students' grades. Instructors also have discretion not to allow a student to attend class. Instructors have the authority to "fail-withdraw" a student.

Instructors handle cases of academic dishonesty according to the established procedures of the MSW program, the School of Social Work, and Adelphi University. Generally, instructors will notify and attempt to meet with the student, apply course-specific sanctions (which are at their sole discretion), notify the student's Academic Advisor, and make a report to the Office of Academic Affairs. The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs may apply additional sanctions based on the seriousness of the offense and previous incidents of academic dishonesty involving the student. The Director of Student Affairs, in consultation with the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs/MSW Program Director may refer the case to the School's Academic Standards Committee, procedures for which are described below.

Refer to: Adelphi University's Policies and Guidelines on Academic Integrity for additional information, procedures, forms, and resources.

Policies and Procedures for Due Process

Procedure for Grade Appeal

The responsibility for assessing student achievement and assigning grades rests with the faculty, and, except for unusual circumstances, the course grade given is final. Instructors have an obligation to make clear the basis of evaluation at the start of each course via the syllabus or Moodle.

The grade appeal system affords recourse to a student who has evidence or believes that evidence exists to show that an inappropriate grade has been assigned as a result of error, or that the method of assigning the grade is inconsistent with the method of assigning grades to other students.

A student who wishes to appeal for a grade must initiate the process in the full semester following the semester in which the contested grade was received. Spring and Summer Session courses must be appealed during the following Fall semester, while Fall and Winter session courses must be appealed during the following Spring semester before the last day to withdraw.

Appeals that are not initiated by these deadlines will not be considered, though the committee may hear appeals received after the deadlines under special circumstances.

If a student believes that an error was made in the assignment of a grade, or that the grade is unfair they should first:

1. Speak with the instructor of the course within 10 days following the posting of the grade. An email message or note requesting an appointment and explaining the problem will give the faculty member an opportunity to gather the appropriate course materials so that the ensuing conversation can be meaningful. As a result of this conversation, a faculty member may correct an error and change the grade.

2. If the problem is not resolved between the student and faculty member, the student may then elevate the communication to include the Director of Student Affairs.

3. If, after communicating with the faculty member and the Director of Student Affairs, the issue remains unresolved, the student may initiate a formal grade appeal by completing and submitting an appeal form (grade appeal form) to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs who will convene a panel of the Ad Hoc Student Grievance Review within 30 days of the communication.

4. If the committee reviews the grievance and finds that the evidence supports taking action, they will make a recommendation to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs who will communicate with the parties involved.

5. If the committee reviews the grievance and finds that the evidence is insufficient to act, a decision is rendered by the Associate Dean and communicated to the student within 10 days of receiving the recommendation. The decision of the Associate Dean for Academic affairs is final. Please submit all grade appeal inquiries to CarolAnn Daniel, Associate Dean of Academic Affairs and MSW Director at daniel@adelphi.edu

Academic Dismissal

Any graduate student dismissed from the program for failure to maintain academic standards has the option to petition the School of Social Work Academic Standards Committee (ASC) for an exception to dismissal.

To appeal a dismissal due to low GPA, the student must submit appropriate documentation to support the appeal to the chair of the ASC via the office of the Director of Student Affairs. All material must be sent within 10 days after receipt of the letter of dismissal. Students who are dismissed may appeal the dismissal decision once.

Academic Standards Committee Determination

Students have the right to appeal the decision of the Associate Dean in writing to the Dean of the School of Social Work on the basis of significant and relevant new information, a procedural error in the panel process, or an assertion that the process was biased or unfair, within five days upon receipt of the decision.

Once the request for an appeal is received by the Dean, a decision will be rendered on eligibility for appeal usually within ten days.

Should the Dean determine that the appeal has no grounds, the request for an appeal will be denied with no further appeal option.

If the Dean believes that appropriate grounds are present, he or she may either ask the original ASC panel to reconvene or ask the Chair of the ASC to form a new panel. The Dean may choose to uphold or reverse the decision with or without the convening of a panel depending on the merits of the case.

All aspects of the process and decision shall be kept confidential except to those who have an educational need to know the outcome.

Ad-Hoc MSW Student Grievance Review Committee

Consistent with the University's protocol, the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs of the School of Social Work may, at her/his discretion, convene an ad-hoc Grievance Review Committee to address any academic or non-academic matter in the School of Social Work, brought by a student.

The Ad Hoc Student Grievance Committee reviews complaints brought by a student against another student, faculty, staff, administrator or community partner. The committee will be composed of three social work faculty members and other members of the school community as appropriate.

A student who wishes to lodge a formal complaint against a member of the school community may do so by sending an email and documentation to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs. Formal complaints must be accompanied by documentation in support of the allegation (i.e., school/university policy or professional conduct that was violated). The committee will exclude matters of academic integrity which are appropriate for the Academic Standards Committee. It is expected that before a student submits a complaint for consideration, they will have engaged in a problem-solving process with the support of the appropriate Program Director or office (Student Affairs or Practicum Director).

Filing for Graduation

All students are required to file a graduation application form at the beginning of the last year of their program. (See the University Registrar website for specific dates). The graduation application form can be obtained online at Graduation | Office of the University Registrar

Students must file this form online in order to receive a degree.

Note: If a student's date of graduation changes, the student must file a new graduation application form for the new graduation date.

Clearance for Graduation: All students must meet all of the following in order to be cleared for graduation:

1. Complete all required courses, including all hours in practicum placement. Students who extend their practicum cannot graduate until their hours are completed;

2. Ensure the completion of all requirements for courses that have incomplete (I) grades;
3. Obtain a final grade-point average of 3.0 or above; and
4. Complete online Mandated Reporter Training (see below).

Getting Involved

Students have a number of opportunities to participate in the larger school community by serving on various School of Social Work academic committees. The following committees welcome active student participation and are listed below:

Content Area (Sequence) Committees:

Responsible for reviewing all courses in their respective areas, refining course objectives and contents in relationship to the mission of the program and overall School curricula, and for preparing and suggesting to the Curriculum Committee new courses for consideration by the faculty. The content areas are:

- Human Behavior and Social Environment;
- Social Research;
- Social Welfare Policy and Organization;
- Social Work Practice; and
- Practicum Education.

For more information contact co-chairs of the curriculum committee.

Student Experience Committee:

The committee comprises various elements that make up the school community: students representing the BSW, MSW, and Ph.D. programs at all sites, and members of the faculty and administration. The Committee meets monthly to examine and discuss issues that impact students as they proceed through their educational experience at Adelphi such as the school's climate, pedagogy and inclusiveness. The committee also functions as an advisory board to bring issues raised and solutions to the attention of faculty and administrators. In the event that participation is prohibitive due to geographic distance from the Garden City campus, students may virtually participate. For more information contact the co-chairs for the Student Experience Committee.

Social Action Committee:

The Social Action Committee (SAC) is composed of faculty members, administrators and students who are actively committed to social justice and social change. It is chaired by two elected faculty members. Through its activities the SAC seeks to inform the SSW, Adelphi and larger communities of policies and issues related to vulnerable and oppressed populations, and to stimulate dialogue and action about these issues. These actions may include school-based or public forums, community partnerships, advocacy, and/or research activities.

For more information contact the co-chairs of the Social Action Committee.

Community Conversation:

AUSSW "community conversation" is a structured dialogue designed to foster collective understanding and action around shared challenges. Students at their respective sites come together to openly discuss and share their perspectives on issues affecting them as they move through the program and to collaboratively brainstorm potential solutions. Each semester there are two scheduled community conversations. They include the Dean, program Directors and other appropriate members of the administrative staff.

For more information contact the Program Coordinator at the respective site.

Licensing Preparation:

Social work licensing preparation programs help prepare social work students and alumni for the ASWB licensing exam. Each year we hire a graduate assistant who works in collaboration with the licensing coordinator to invite and engage students in the alumni licensing discussion forum and to organize licensing workshops which are facilitated by our alumni. We also provide information sessions for students in their Generalist and Specialized Year, strategy sessions, seminars and content specific refresher courses supported by a dedicated Moodle site with additional resources. The program offers a licensing incentive program on a first come first serve basis where we reimburse the licensing fee of students who take the exam. Additionally, the school pays AATBS for the LMSW Exam preparation. For more information contact the Director of Student Affairs.

Students for Change (student organization):

Students for Change is a student organization which strives to foster an academic learning environment that highlights social justice issues within society. They use the principles of ADEIB on micro, macro and mezzo levels to bring awareness to pressing issues. The goal is to ignite passion that fuels social action both within the school and the profession of social work

For more information contact the Student Affairs Coordinator at your respective site.

Graduate Assistant Opportunities:

Each year The Office of Student Affairs offers students several opportunities to apply for graduate assistantships. Students are employed as research assistance, service assistance and license graduate assistance. Students also provide academic support (tutoring) for both BSW and MSW students. Students are compensated with course credits for their work. The Licensing GA provides support to students learning by sending out Questions of the Week, outreach to alumni, organize an alumni panel discussion forum where we invite current students to participate and learn about the LMSW exam, tips and tricks, provide socio-emotional support and mentorship and to encourage students take the exam right as soon as they qualify.

Other Graduate Assistantship Opportunities

Students may also submit their resume for a research assistantship with a faculty through the Dean's office or by directly contacting the faculty. Faculty research interests are noted on the university's website.

The office of the Director of Student Affairs also provides workshops, programming, activities and leadership opportunities out of the classroom. This includes but is not limited to:

- opportunities to prepare for professional social work career
- resources and tools for the social work licensing and application process
- connections with alumni and other social work professionals
- peer mentoring program
- Student clubs
- graduate assistantship opportunities
- community conversations

Students also have opportunities to get involved in the school and university life through our University partners. They include:

- Multicultural Center
- Graduate Student Council
- Student Leadership Certificate Program
- Interfaith Center
- Diversity Committee
- Panther Pantry
- Student Veteran Task Force
- Alternative Break Programs
- Adelphi Pride Committee (LGBTQIA+)

For more information contact the Center for Community and Student Engagement at: engage@adelphi.edu.

Student Support Services

University Academic & Student Support Services

IT Help Desk (Customer Services):

The IT Help Desk \(Customer Services\) provides a point of contact for students, faculty, administration, and staff who have computer and related technology questions, problems, or work requests. Student Counseling Center (SCC):

The Student Counseling Center (SCC) provides confidential and professional mental health counseling services, resources, and referrals to support the academic and personal success, health, and well-being of Adelphi students without additional charge. Counselors are available to help students cope with a variety of stressors and personal issues that may interfere with their academic and personal experiences. The Center also supports students who may be feeling suicidal or in crisis. To schedule an appointment, please call (516) 877-3646; email: scc@adelphi.edu or stop by the SCC. If you need immediate assistance, walk-in services are available during the fall and spring semesters. Additional information can also be found by visiting <https://scc.adelphi.edu>.

Need support when the SCC is not available? For 24/7 emergency counseling, referral, or assistance, please contact:

- National Suicide Prevention Lifeline (800) 273-TALK (8255)
- Crisis Text Line: Text 741741
- Adelphi Office of Public Safety: Off-campus: (516) 877-3511; On-campus: Extension 5 on any campus phone
- 911 (for immediate health-related emergency)

* Students at the off-campus sites (i.e., Hauppauge, Hudson Valley, Manhattan and the OMSW program) should contact the respective administrators for information on counseling support as these are provided by different contracted providers arranged on their behalf by the University.

Learning and Writing Centers (LWC):

The Learning and Writing Centers assist students in all disciplines to become more effective and confident writers and scholars. Peer tutors are available free for students of all levels. Appointments are recommended, and can be reserved online at Adelphi University CASE, accessible through our E-campus service tab.

If you are interested in learning more about the services available at the Learning and Writing Centers, please visit: Center for Academic Support & Enrichment | Academic Support & Tutoring | Adelphi University. Call 516.877.3200 or stop by our locations any time.

Career Preparation:

The Center for Career and Professional Development aims to provide career counseling to all Adelphi University students, including MSW students. The Center provides workshops and advice on crafting résumés, cover letters, and other career related information. Additionally, the Center organizes job fairs and serves as a repository of job announcements, internships and on campus employment. Students preparing for their careers post-graduation should familiarize themselves with the services of the center: Career Guidance | Professional Development | Adelphi University

Panther Pantry

Food insecurity can be found anywhere, even on a college campus.

Adelphi's Panther Pantry can help, providing members of our community with basic food items, free of charge. The pantry addresses other needs, too, offering personal care products, clothing and household items. All are free for the asking. Just drop by the pantry or order online from our virtual menu. Either way, we'll protect your privacy, as all pantry use is confidential.

Professional Social Work Resources

National Association of Social Workers (NASW)

With chapters in all 50 states, NASW is the largest organization of professional social workers in the world. The association's primary functions include: creating and maintaining professional standards for social work practice, advancing sound public policies and programs, and providing such membership services as group insurance coverage and subscriptions to NASW News and the Journal of Social Work. NASW also administers its own certification process, the ACSW exam, permitting admission to the Academy of Certified Social Workers, a nationally recognized status. For more information about the NY State Chapter: naswnys.org (you may find information on the Nassau, Suffolk and Hudson Valley Divisions here) and for the NYC Chapter of NASW: naswnyc.org

National Association of Black Social Workers

The National Association of Black Social Workers (NABSW) was established in 1968 and advocates to address important social issues that affect the health and welfare of the black community. The organization has many chapters throughout the United States and the Caribbean in addition to several affiliate groups in Africa. The chapter can be reached by mail at P.O. Box 624, Hempstead, NY 11550. For more information about NABSW: National Association of Black Social Workers \(NABSW\)

National Association of Puerto Rican/Hispanic Social Workers

The mission of the National Association of Puerto Rican/Hispanic Social Workers (NAPRHSW) is to organize social workers and other human service professionals to strengthen, develop, and improve the resources and services that meet the needs of Puerto Rican/Hispanic families. The association provides scholarships to deserving students attending colleges/universities affiliated with NAPRHSW on their way to becoming social workers. NAPRHSW also sponsors workshops, including hosting guest speakers at their general meetings. The association can be reached by mail at NAPRHSW, P.O. Box 651, Brentwood, NY 11717, or at (631) 864-1536. For more information about the NAPRHSW: National Association Puerto Rican Hispanic Social Workers

Council on Social Work Education

Founded in 1952, the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) is the national association representing social work education in the United States. Its members include over 750 accredited baccalaureate and master's degree social work programs, as well as individual social work educators, practitioners, and agencies dedicated to advancing quality social work education.

Grand Challenges for Social Work

The Grand Challenges for Social Work, the flagship program of the American Academy of Social Work & Social Welfare (AASWSW), is a groundbreaking initiative to champion social progress powered by science. It's a call to action for social work researchers and practitioners to:

- Harness social work's science and knowledge base;
- Collaborate with individuals, community-based organizations, and professionals from all practicum and disciplines; and
- Work together to tackle some of our toughest social problems.

About | Grand Challenges for Social Work

Congressional Research Institute for Social Work and Policy

The Congressional Research Institute for Social Work and Policy (CRISP) was created in 2012 as a 501(c)4 nonprofit organization that would complement the mission and work of the Congressional Social Work Caucus founded by Congressman Edolphus "Ed" Towns in 2010 with the assistance of Dr. Charles E. Lewis, Jr., his deputy chief of staff and communications director.

Congressional Research Institute for Social Work and Policy

Influencing Social Policy

Welcome to ISP, a non-profit organization for social work educators, students, and practitioners with a passion for policy! Our goal is to prepare and motivate social workers to play an active role in shaping the social policies that impact our clients and communities.

European Social Work Research Association

The European Social Work Research Association (ESWRA) was founded in 2014 to create a hub for social work research development, collaboration and exchange across Europe. Arising from overwhelming levels of engagement in the European Social Work Research Conference, the Association now has over 600 members from across more than 33 countries.

ESWRA's vision is to take forward the development, practice and utilization of social work research to enhance knowledge about individual and social problems, and to promote just and equitable societies.

ESWRA

International Consortium for Social Development

The International Consortium for Social Development (ICSD) is an organization of practitioners, scholars and students in the human services.

It was started in the 1970's by a group of social work educators to respond to pressing human concerns from an international, interdisciplinary perspective. The organization seeks to develop conceptual frameworks and effective intervention strategies geared to influencing local, national and international systems. It is committed to creating peaceful solutions to the problems of survival at the local, national and global levels. ICSD members use a social development approach to:

- Develop capacity of individuals and communities
- Promote world peace and social justice
- Improve access to adequate health care and education
- Overcome discrimination against women and minorities
- Create sustainable income and economic structures

Financial Aid and Services

Financial Aid

Graduate students are eligible for loans through Student Financial Services. All students are required to complete the FAFSA form online at fafsa.ed.gov. The Adelphi University federal school code is 002666.

In addition to the financial aid packages available through the University Student Financial Services, the School of Social Work has a limited amount of financial aid available to graduate social work students. This aid is primarily in the form of:

- Scholarships and Awards (merit and memorial);
- Graduate Assistantships;
- Agency tuition remission; and
- Merit Scholarships.

Scholarships/awards are not renewable and may not be combined with any other university-based aid or scholarships. Students must remain in good academic standing to receive this award.

Summer Session Temporary Hours

- Monday - Thursday: 8:30 a.m.–4:30 p.m.
- Friday: 9:00 a.m.–4:30 p.m.

Paying your bill: If you are paying without using financial aid, you can make a payment on C.L.A.S.S. using the “Make a Payment” tab. You can also come to campus and make a payment at our Cashiers Office in the Lower Level of Levermore Hall. If you do not plan on paying out-of-pocket, you will need to complete a Federal Application for Federal Aid Student (FAFSA). For Financial Aid questions or concerns, please call (516) 877-3080 or email onestop@adelphi.edu using your Adelphi email only. A Student Financial Services representative will not reply to anything other than an Adelphi email account. When communicating with the Student Financial Services office, you must include your Adelphi Student ID number or you will not receive a response. Also, be sure to include a working phone and/or email address. Due to high call volume, emails tend to get faster responses.

Payment Plans:

You can find information about current MSW tuition rates here: OMSW Tuition. Students have access to their financial account information through the CLASS system. Once your registration is complete, a forwarding link will automatically send you to Adelphi's online payment website. Adelphi accepts e-checks, Discover, Visa, and MasterCard.

Tuition and fees are payable in full at the time of registration. Students pre-registering for the Fall and Spring semesters will be billed in June and November, respectively. The University offers a semester payment in full option or the convenient monthly payment plan for the Fall and Spring semesters.

More information regarding payment plans is available here:

<https://www.adelphi.edu/admissions/aid/payments/>

Third Party Payments:

Students choosing this option should contact Student Financial Services to arrange third party billing service. They can be contacted here:

e - onestop@adelphi.edu

Account Responsibility:

All tuition and fee charges are due at the time of registration, unless a monthly payment is elected. Failure to make payments on time will result in the assessment of late penalties.

Credit Balances and Refunds:

Financial related policies can be found on the Student Financial Services website and eCampus. The refund policy is located at <https://www.adelphi.edu/admissions/aid/refunds/>

Refunds are computed as of the date the Registrar is notified of the withdrawal. The date of the request will determine the tuition liability for the semester. Not participating in a course does not constitute an official withdrawal. Students will be held responsible for payment of all tuition and fees until an official withdrawal is presented to the Registrar.

Also, failure to complete payment does not constitute an official withdrawal. A student who is suspended, dismissed, or who withdraws when under investigation for misconduct will not have tuition refunded for the semester in which such an action is taken.

All refunds of credit balances must be requested from the Office of Student Financial Services. All students who withdraw from the University prior to the first day of classes will receive a credit for all tuition and fees, less the mandatory withdrawal fee.

Past Due Accounts:

Students having outstanding indebtedness to the University will not be permitted to register, receive a transcript or grade report, or have a degree conferred. No student may withdraw or graduate from the University in good standing unless all current obligations are paid in full. Federal and state regulations, as well as University policy, precludes the use of any current financial aid for payment of past due charges.

Students applying for financial assistance must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) online at fafsa.gov.

Scholarship and Other Funding Opportunities

Scholarships

Merit-based Scholarships: Merit-based scholarships are available for incoming students in the M.S.W. program. These scholarships may be awarded to students who demonstrate academic excellence, a strong commitment to the practicum of social work through community involvement, internships or social work employment, and who demonstrate financial need by virtue of eligibility for subsidized loans.

This award is granted in the form of tuition remission and will be applied to your Adelphi student account. This scholarship is not renewable nor may it be combined with any other University scholarship.

Information for the merit-based scholarship is available from the office of the Director of Outreach, Enrollment and Professional Advisement in the School of Social Work. Applications will be accepted throughout the year while funds are available.

Contact: Director of Outreach, Enrollment and Professional Advisement, at (516) 877-4384.

Endowed Scholarships and Awards:

Students attending the School of Social Work may apply for available scholarships and/or awards each fall and spring. Scholarship offerings may vary from year-to-year depending upon the funding that is available. Memorial Endowed scholarships and awards are awarded/offered in the fall and spring semesters.

Information on available awards is disseminated via email to students each fall and spring of each academic year. Interested applicants should contact the Director of Outreach, Enrollment and Professional Advisement, at (516) 877-4384, for more information.

Elizabeth A. Doherty Memorial Scholarship: Kathleen J. Esposito, the sister of the late alumna and adjunct faculty member, Elizabeth A. Doherty, established a memorial scholarship in 2001, its mission consistent with Ms. Doherty's lifetime commitment to social work, counseling, and assistance to those in need. Only students who demonstrate a commitment to women's issues and demonstrate a talent for overcoming adversity are eligible. To qualify, applicants must be studying for the M.S.W. degree and be in financial need.

Dr. Barbara Esp Scholarship: The Dr. Barbara Esp Educational Scholarship was established in 2010 to honor her dedication to and leadership in evaluation and educational research. The scholarship celebrates her excellence in education and dedication to helping others. Candidates must be a resident of New York State and pursuing a graduate degree in social work at Adelphi University.

Patricia Beldoch Hochfelder Memorial Scholarship: Gene Hochfelder established the Patricia Beldoch Hochfelder Memorial Scholarship in 1986 in memory of his late wife Patricia, a social work alumna. The scholarship is available to Full-Time, minority B.S.W. or M.S.W. students who have a strong academic record and demonstrated financial need. Applicants must show evidence of their commitment to social work values of fairness and social justice.

Henry William Niebuhr Scholarship: The Henry William Niebuhr Scholarship is awarded to a B.S.W. or M.S.W. student who is concentrating in the area of substance abuse counseling; and who has financial need. To qualify, the student must also be in good academic standing.

Rita Paprin Memorial Scholarship: Maurice Paprin and the family and friends of the late Rita Paprin, an alumna of the School of Social Work, established the Rita Paprin Memorial Scholarship in 1983. The scholarship is available to B.S.W., M.S.W., and Ph.D. students who have demonstrated experience with, and commitment to, changing social policy.

Joseph John Parnicky, Ph.D. Scholarship: This award is available to graduate students with demonstrated financial need, enrolled in the graduate social work program at Adelphi.

Applicants must submit an essay describing their interest in developing programs for people with developmental disabilities and/or developing programs for people who are mentally ill.

Dean's Scholarship: Each year the Dean of the School of Social Work recognizes one student from each campus who describes in an essay what they have done in their internship, workplace and/or community that demonstrates excellence in practice and their commitment to social work values. Students must demonstrate involvement in community/school organizations, committees, and/or volunteer work; have a letter of recommendation from a social work professor and be in good academic standing. This award is available to students who have earned a minimum of 12 credits in the graduate program.

Other Funding Opportunities

Graduate Assistantships: Full-time faculty in the School of Social Work seeking Graduate Assistants are usually looking for masters or doctoral students who have research experience and can do literature searches, data entry, data collection and/or statistical analysis, among other things. Administrators in the School of Social Work are also seeking Graduate Assistants to do tutoring, new student outreach, managing social media sites, etc. Compensation is in the form of tuition remission. One credit of remission is awarded for 30 hours of work over the course of a semester. Most assistantships are 3 credits and require 90 hours of work, which is the equivalent of 6 hours per week for the semester. For detailed information please visit: Microsoft Word - Graduate-Assistant-Handbook working file.docx \(adelphi.edu\)

To apply for a graduate assistantship, drop off your résumé to the Budget Coordinator/Office Manager in the School of Social Work (Room 205, Social Work Building, Garden City Campus) with a cover letter explaining your interest in being either an administrative or research graduate assistant, any related experiences as well as your availability. Your résumé will then be forwarded to interested professors and/or administrators.

Graduate Assistantships are not automatically renewable and may not be combined with any other university-based aid or scholarships. Students must remain in good academic standing to receive this award. For detailed information please visit: Institutional Awards | Scholarships and Grants | Adelphi University

Contact: Patricia Durecko, Budget Coordinator, email: pdurecko@adelphi.edu or call (516) 877-4383; SWB Room 205.

Agency Tuition Remission: Students employed in social work agencies affiliated with the School of Social Work's practicum Education program may be eligible for agency tuition remission. To qualify, the student's agency must designate accrued tuition remission credits to the employee consistent with the University's policy for agency tuition remission.

Contact: Patricia Durecko, Budget Coordinator, email: pdurecko@adelphi.edu or call (516) 877-4383; SWB Room 205.

Stipend Fellowships: Returning or new students in the specialized year may be eligible for a number of training fellowships that provide them with generous stipends during their practicum education and some of these fellowships require students to complete certain electives. For more information please visit: Help with College Tuition | Adelphi's School of Social Work in NY

Should you have further questions, feel free to contact any person listed in the link above or contact the assistant director of practicum at your site | in your program for more information.

Other Information for Graduation and Beyond

Mandated Reporter Training Certificate

The New York State Education Department requires all social workers applying for social work licensure be trained as mandated reporters of child abuse and neglect.

At the school all students are required to complete this training in their level practice class. Instructors may use the training and the certification towards the students' final grade for the course. Students who are in Advanced Standing have to furnish proof of completion of the training in their undergraduate program. If they have not completed the training, they will be required to successfully complete the training in order to graduate. The training is provided for free by New York State. Upon successful completion of the course, students will receive an electronic copy of a certificate, which must be submitted to the Office of Academic Affairs of the School of Social Work (attention: Ms. Kathleen Augustine (kaugustine@adelphi.edu)) in order to be cleared for graduation.

Licensing Exam | LMSW

Upon successful completion of the MSW degree, Adelphi graduates are eligible to apply for licensure as a Licensed Master Social Worker (LMSW). The exam was instituted in 2004, when the State's statute created two licensed social work titles in New York State, the Licensed Master Social Worker (LMSW) and the Licensed Clinical Social Worker (LCSW). The School of Social Work provides all its MSW graduates with Licensing Preparation Workshops, which are funded through a student fee and provided at no additional cost. Typically, MSW students in the final semester of their advanced year will receive information about registering for the LMSW Exam and on the Licensing Preparation Workshop Adelphi University School of Social (Social Work Licensing Exam Prep | Adelphi University).
