Dear Student,

On behalf of the faculty, administration, and staff, I welcome you to the Adelphi University School of Social Work. As a nationally renowned and highly ranked school, we have been preparing social workers for over 70 years. You have chosen a profession that is committed to improving the well-being of individuals, families and the communities, as well as society at large. As part of your educational experience, you will begin to develop the knowledge, values, and skills that will enable you to transform lives, empower communities and advocate for social justice. As future change agents, we are excited that you have decided to start your professional journey here at Adelphi.

The student handbook is your guide to navigate your educational journey at our school. In it you will find, among other things, policies and procedures pertaining to academics and student life. We hope you will take time to familiarize yourself with your rights and responsibilities as a student and the policies and procedures that govern academic progress in the M.S.W. programs. We believe that this information will be key to your successful journey through the program.

This is an important time to be a student in social work amid the ongoing pandemic and the nation's reckoning with racism, health inequities and white supremacy. We hope you will challenge yourselves to embrace the values of social justice and be much needed change agents in your future careers as social workers.

Sincerely,

Manoj Pardasani, Ph.D. LCSW, ACSW
Dean and Professor

A SAFE RETURN TO CAMPUS

Adelphi has continued to monitor the science and data regarding the spread of COVID-19. For the well-being of our community and to enable our return to a full academic experience this year, we are requiring all students and employees to be fully vaccinated before returning to Adelphi for the start of our fall 2021 semester.

For more information about what you need to do and for any questions that you might have please refer to this link: https://www.adelphi.edu/coronavirus/faqs/vaccination-information/

If you are not in compliance with the University's immunization policy, you will receive alerts and reminders to submit proof of vaccination. If you remain noncompliant beyond the deadlines indicated above or any University-approved grace period, you will not be permitted on campus, which may impact your enrollment in classes.

Your COVID-19 vaccine must be currently authorized by the World Health Organization (WHO). This includes those vaccines currently authorized for emergency use in the United States (Moderna, Pfizer and Johnson & Johnson). You are considered fully vaccinated two weeks after administration of the second dose of a two-dose vaccine (e.g., Pfizer, Moderna) or two weeks after administration of a single dose vaccine (e.g., Johnson & Johnson).

- Remain flexible in case the public health situation changes and state officials announce new requirements or restrictions. In addition to our vaccine FAQ web page, following my signature below are some anticipated questions and answers. Please feel free to also contact us by email at healthandwellness@adelphi.edu.

MISSION AND PROGRAM GOALS

The Adelphi University School of Social Work prepares graduates to practice ethically and effectively in diverse cultural and social contexts upon entering the profession and throughout their careers. Through our student-centered curricula, faculty scholarship, and community engaged programs, we provide leadership to advance knowledge, skills, and values for the profession. We are committed to the enhancement of human well-being, the advancement of human rights, and the promotion of social justice for individuals and communities, regionally, nationally and globally.

The MSW program goals of the AUSSW flow from its mission and are as follows:

Goal 1: To provide an integrative course of study which is responsive to student needs, societal conditions, and emerging social issues, and which will prepare students to be effective and ethical practitioners upon graduation and throughout their careers.

Goal 2: To promote faculty scholarship and research that produces knowledge that informs and advances theory, practice, and policy in social work and allied fields towards the goal of impacting the well-being of client systems;

Goal 3: To provide leadership and collaboration with community stakeholders to identify and address unmet and emergent needs, and to develop and support programs which advance the profession, enhance human service delivery, and strengthen community and organizational capacity.

MSW Program of Study

The Master of Social Work (M.S.W.) program offers the preparation you need for advanced professional social work practice. Our foundation curriculum provides the knowledge, skills, values and ethics essential to all forms and levels of generalist social work practice. In your advanced year, you will complete a concentration in contemporary, direct practice—and prepare to be an advanced social work practitioner using sophisticated clinical skills in work with individuals, small groups, families and couples.
MSW CURRICULUM

Required On-line Learning Experience (ROLE):

The School of Social Work requires all new students to complete Required On-Line Learning Experience (ROLE) asynchronously (self-paced) on MOODLE. The purpose of ROLE is to equip students with information literacy, specifically on the basics on searching for scholarly literature and materials using the library search engine and databases as well as familiarizing students with the basics and mechanics of academic writing, the American Psychological Association (APA) publication style, an understanding of academic honesty and how to avoid plagiarism, and information on licensing.

Organization and Structure of the Master of Social Work Curriculum:

All degree candidate students in the foundation year of the M.S.W. degree program must successfully complete the ten required courses:

- two on social welfare policy;
- two on theories of human behavior;
- two on theories of social work practice;
- one about diversity, oppression and cultural influences in social work practice;
- one in methods of empirical research; and
- Two supervised field internships.

In the advanced year, all students must successfully complete ten courses: five of which are required for the concentration in advanced contemporary direct practice:

- two courses in advanced social work practice;
- one course in assessment and diagnosis from a social work perspective;
- one course in advanced social work research;
- one course in organizational context for professional practice;
- three additional elective courses (students are required to take one that is designated as an integrative course and another a clinical course); and
- Two supervised field internships.

All students enrolled in SWK510 Human Behavior I and all incoming advanced standing students who did not receive their BSW from AUSSW will be required to complete this online training by the first five weeks of the semester in which they are admitted into the program.
Field Education:

Field education — the signature pedagogy of social work education — plays a pivotal role in student learning. Through internships in social service settings, students are provided with opportunities to apply knowledge learned in the classroom experience to social work practice with diverse populations in a broad range of agencies. Students develop professional skills and competence in practice during the course of their internships in working with people and communities. Students learn to bring their humanity and authenticity to their practice, to act with professional courage, and to develop a vision about making a contribution toward the amelioration of the significant social problems that face our society.

Field education is a unique partnership between the School and the agencies with which it affiliates. Through ongoing communication, the agencies and faculty field liaisons work towards the development of a shared educational philosophy and standards in designing and implementing a sound educational program for students.

Program Paths for Full and Part-Time Students

The School has developed program paths to meet Full-Time and Part-Time students’ needs and schedules as well as their qualifications. For detailed information please visit: https://www.adelphi.edu/program/graduate/social-work-degree/

The MSW Full-Time program can be completed over two years (fall, spring, fall and spring semesters; typically with no requirements for summer classes) or over sixteen months (spring, summer, fall and spring semesters; due to certain limitations, this option is only available for Garden City students). Students who meet the advanced standing criteria may complete their Full-Time program in one year (fall and spring semesters). Those who qualify for the HSP (aka OYR) program may complete their Full-Time program in two years (fall, spring, and fall and spring semesters, with no summer classes). For detailed information please visit: Social Work, M.S.W.

The MSW Part-Time program can be completed over 3 (with the option of a fall or spring semester start), 3.5 or 4 years. Typically all part-time students will take some classes during the summer, and may take between 6 to 10 credits in any given semester. For detailed information please visit: Social Work, M.S.W., Part Time

Bilingual School Social Work Program

The Bilingual School Social Work Program offers MSW students a certificate in bilingual school social work and requires an additional 6 credits that are completed at the College of Education and Health Sciences. This certificate is recognized by the New York State Education Department and is designed for bilingual individuals interested in working as bilingual social workers in a New York State primary or secondary school setting. This program can be completed either full-time for part-time with two education course courses taken upon completing the MSW degree requirements.

Students who have taken MGT (0210) 561 or HRM (0208) 765 at Adelphi within the prior five years may apply the credits for those courses to fulfill the requirements for the ACHR. Students who have taken undergraduate courses in organizational behavior or organizational theory may request that the requirement for MGT (0210) 561 be replaced with either BUS (0204) 689 Negotiation for the Business Professional or MGT (0210) 791 Management Styles and Team Building instead.

For Students enrolled in the School of Social Work: they must apply to the Robert B. Willumstad School of Business prior to beginning the courses. If accepted, they may apply the credits for SWK (0404) 722 - Organization Context for Professional Practice to fulfill the MGT (0201) 561 requirements.

Planning Guidelines for the MSW Students

When planning your academic program for completion of M.S.W. degree requirements, please adhere to the following registration policies and procedures below:

Students and advisers must ensure that pre-requisite and/or co-requisite requirements are met and courses are taken in their proper sequence (see Program Planning Worksheet).

Students must complete degree requirements within four years from the semester in which they first matriculated.

All foundation level courses must be taken before starting any advanced courses.

If a student earns a failing grade in any foundation level course (this includes all field courses), a student may not proceed to advanced level course work. If a student has an incomplete grade in any foundation level course (this includes all field courses), the incomplete must be resolved prior to entering the advanced level of course work.

Students in Field Placement register for Section 01 of their field course.

Students must take their practice courses and field instruction together as co-requisites.

Foundation Year students take SWK 520 with Field Instruction I (SWK 690 or 693 Extended) and SWK 521 with Field Instruction II (SWK 691 or 694 Extended).

Advanced Year students take SWK 780 (typically offered in Fall) with Field Instruction III (SWK 790 or 778 Extended), and SWK 782 (typically offered in Spring) with Field Instruction IV (SWK 791 or 779 Extended) and SWK 776 as a co-requisite.

Beginning Fall 2021, we are offering only one section of 782 (typically offered in Spring semester) but many sections of 780. If you plan to take 782 in Fall, please contact:
Dr. Rozario, Associate Dean for Academic Affairs (rozario@adelphi.edu) OR
Ms. Schanica Pickens, Assistant Dean of Student Affairs (spickens@adelphi.edu) in order to take 782 as a co-requisite with 776.

To meet NYS Education Department residency requirements, beginning Fall 2021, all advanced year MSW students are required to take the one-credit hybrid 776 course (Credentialing & Assessment in Social: Licensing Prep Initiative) “in residence” at the Garden City Campus. Note that 51% (8 hours) of the instruction for SWK 776 will be done in-person at the Garden City Campus. It is important that you pick the section based on your availability for the in-person session.

Advanced year elective courses are offered in the fall, spring, and summer semesters. Students may not take electives in their foundation year.
Specializations:
For the Advanced Level, MSW students may choose ONE of FOUR OPTIONAL specializations: Children and Families; Health across the Life Course; Mental Health, Substance Abuse, and Trauma in Context; or Human Service Management and Organizational Leadership. Students interested in declaring a specialization will need to:

a) work with the field education department to secure a field placement in the area of specialization in their advanced year;

b) successfully complete any three electives (one of which must be designated clinical or “C” and another integrative or “I”)

All MSW students will be required to take three (3) electives; one must be designated “I” (integrative) and another “C” (Clinical), regardless of whether or not they choose a specialization. The integrative designation, in their advanced year towards the completion of the MSW degree.¹

All MSW students must take SWK 780 and SWK 782 as the advanced year direct practice courses. Students may take SWK 780 or SWK 782 in either semester of the advanced year concurrent with co-requisite field courses. However, students may NOT take 780 and 782 in the same semester.

HSP students must register for SWK 601 (the OYR Professional Seminar) concurrent with Foundations of Social Work Practice I (SWK 520).

HSP students may begin field instruction only after completing all foundation-level classes (SWK 500 courses, refer to the program paths for HSP students). HSP students in field instruction for 30 hours per week register for SWK 796 in the fall and SWK 797 in the spring. HSP students in field instruction for 21 hours per week in the fall/spring and 24 hours per week in the summer, register for SWK 790 in the fall, SWK 791 in the spring, and SWK 792 in the summer. HSP students in field instruction for 15 hours per week in the fall/spring/summer/fall semesters, register for SWK 790 in the summer semester of advanced year courses, SWK 791 in the fall, SWK 792 in the spring and SWK 689 in the following summer term.

Students should be certain that all degree requirements are being met, including a cumulative GPA of 3.0, and that courses are properly sequenced. An error in scheduling could delay graduation and result in additional tuition costs.

All students in the advanced year complete a concentration in advanced contemporary direct practice that includes the following courses: SWK 710, 722, 758, 780, 782.²

² Registration policies and procedures are subject to change.
ACADEMIC GUIDELINES AND POLICIES

Academic and Professional Advising:
All graduate students are assigned an advisor when they enter and throughout the academic program. The advisor is responsible for providing academic and professional guidance, including but not limited to program planning, course approval, field education planning and supervision, life and career goals. If the student is entering the field, a faculty field liaison is assigned who serves as academic advisor as well as liaison to the field placement. If the student is not entering the field, studying as a Part-Time student, taking academic classes only without field and practice, then the advisor is not a field liaison. All advisors are faculty members, full-time or part-time, or social work administrators. New advisor assignments are made each academic year.

Degree Requirements:
Students must complete degree requirements (64-credits) within four years from the semester in which they first matriculated. Students must maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.0 in order to qualify for graduation. Maintaining good standing is also important for financial aid purposes, please see section on Satisfactory Academic Progress. Students who do not have a 3.0 GPA at their last semester will not be allowed to graduate.

Engagement in Social Action Learning Activities:
In recognition of the values, guiding principles, professional standards, and educational mandates of social work, Adelphi University School of Social Work affirms its enduring commitment to nurturing competencies in social action among our students.

A significant priority in this effort is to assure opportunities for student engagement in activities of social action to complement their coursework in all sequences during their formative education in order to develop knowledge, practice skills, and values for social action. Social action learning activities will be facilitated through partnership among the School's students, faculty, administrators, and staff.

To this end, all Adelphi social work undergraduate and graduate students are expected, within reason, to participate in required social action learning activities during each academic year in which they are taking concurrent practice and field courses. All other students, as well as faculty, administrators, and staff, are invited to participate in these activities to encourage our community to come together in our pursuit of social justice.

The school's Social Action Committee, comprising faculty, administrators, and student members, will coordinate a diversity of social action learning activities each year in order to assure equitable access to sufficient social action learning activities across all social work academic programs and Centers.

Accountability for participation will be supported through procedures wherein students document their participation in and analysis of social action learning activities through the use of process recordings and timesheets that are reviewed by field instructors and faculty field liaisons. Reasonable accommodations for student hardships and learning needs will be assured.
Transfer of Credits:
Students who taken graduate courses in a CSWE accredited graduate program or an accredited graduate program in an allied field, comparable to an MSW level course at AUSSW may request a transfer of credit. The course must have been taken within five years of matriculation, with a grade of B or better. The School of Social Work will consider up to 12 credits for transfer. The School does not accept life/work experience for transfer into the program. To make a request, students must submit the following to our Office of Graduate Admissions:

- An official transcript
- Course syllabus that provides a description of the course, the assigned readings, and assignments.

The Director of Outreach, Enrollment and Professional Advisement, in consultation with the Associate Dean and the respective sequence chair, will assess the comparability of the course(s) to an existing Adelphi course. If the graduate credit is approved for transfer, students do not have to take another course in its place. A placing-out exam may be required at the discretion of the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs. Only courses completed for graduate credit may be transferred.

Course Waivers:
Waivers are granted selectively on an individual basis. Students who have taken a graduate course comparable to an MSW course at the AUSSW may request a course waiver. The course must have been taken within five years of matriculation, with a grade of B or better and students must submit the following to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs:

- An official transcript
- Course syllabus that provides a description of the course, the assigned readings, and assignments.

The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, in consultation with the sequence chair, will assess if the course corresponds to the Adelphi course. If the course is considered comparable, students will be required to take a placing-out exam. If students pass the exam with a grade of B or better—the course is waived, and they must take another course in its place. Only courses completed for graduate credit may be waived.

Repetition of Courses:
Students who earned a grade of F in any required course must repeat the course. Students repeating a course do not earn additional credits toward graduation. The original F grade remains on the student’s record, and will count towards the student’s GPA along with the new grade earned for the repeated course. Students’ transcripts record all courses taken, along with grades earned, at Adelphi University, including any late course withdrawals.
Good Academic Standing and Academic Probation:

Graduate students must maintain a B (3.0) cumulative grade-point average (GPA) in order to be in good academic standing. Any graduate student with a GPA between 2.5 and 2.99 at the end of any semester (or its equivalent) in the School will be placed on probation. Students on probation are informed in writing from the School. Any graduate student on probation who does not raise his or her GPA to 3.0 by the end of the probationary semester will be subject to dismissal from the program. The probationary semester is defined as the equivalent of either one full-time semester or two part-time semesters. Full-time students placed on academic probation are strongly advised to move to part-time student status in order to focus on improving academic performance. For all students on academic probation, an academic probation contract is generated that must be reviewed and signed by the student placed on probation. It is a requirement of continuing matriculation that students on academic probation meet with a designated administrator in the School’s office of academic affairs to review the contract and develop an educational plan to attain good standing in the program. Any graduate student with a GPA below 2.5 at any point in his or her experience at the School will be subject to dismissal from the School.

Note 1: For part-time students on academic probation, students must meet the terms of their first academic probation contract (first semester on probation) in order to advance to the second and final academic probation contract (final semester on probation). Failure to meet the terms of the first contract may result in dismissal from the program.

Note 2: Students on probation cannot take a leave of absence, withdraw from any class, or receive an incomplete in any course during the time they are on probation. Failure to comply with this will result in termination from the program.

Satisfactory Academic Progress:

In addition to maintaining good standing in the MSW Program, all students receiving federal financial aid are required to maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) in order to continue receiving such aid. The definition of SAP contains both a qualitative measure (GPA) and quantitative standard (i.e. the number of credits the student has successfully completed). Students who have been denied financial aid because they have failed to maintain SAP may appear this decision if there were mitigating circumstances beyond the student’s control which affected their academic progress. Examples of extenuating circumstances include medical emergencies or health issues or unforeseen personal emergencies. The university’s student financial service. Students who have been notified that they have failed to meet SAP may appeal this decision through the Office of Academic Affairs of the AUSSW. Students whose appeal has been approved by the office of the ADAA will be placed on an individualized academic plan. Failure to meet the terms of the academic plan will result in the loss of future eligibility for federal financial aid until the student is meeting the school’s academic progress requirements.
Provisional Student:
For students who demonstrate the potential for academic and other standards, but do not meet all the criteria for acceptance, the student is accepted as a provisional student. Students accepted provisionally are advised to take a maximum of six credits in their first semester and will be required to earn a minimum grade of “B” in each course completed at AUSSW. The student’s progress is reviewed throughout the semester for professional standards and academic performance. If the provisional student does not meet the above criteria, they are dismissed from the program after the first semester. There is no appeal process for the dismissal of provisional students when they do not earn the minimum grades for each course. Students accepted as provisional do not begin their field work until their status is converted to degree candidacy. All provisional students are advised by Student Affairs personnel at respective sites and monitored throughout their provisional semester.

Leaves of Absence:
A student in good academic standing may apply for either a personal leave or medical leave of absence, depending on the reason for the leave. There are processed by two different offices, depending on the type of leave students qualify for:

Personal Leave of Absence: Graduate students in good academic standing requesting a personal leave should submit a written request to the Assistant Dean of Student Affairs. The request must include the reason for the personal leave and the expected date of return to school. A maximum of one year leave is permitted. Students who are approved for a personal leave of absence are blocked from registering for classes. When the student returns and is ready to register, the block is lifted. A written request to return following a leave is required. In order to retain earned credits, the student must return to school within five years of the course(s) completed. A student must be in good academic standing, defined as having a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0, in order to be eligible to request a personal leave of absence.

Note: Students on probation cannot take a leave of absence, withdraw from any class, or receive an incomplete in any course during the time they are on probation. Failure to comply with this will result in termination from the program.

Medical Leave of Absence (MLOA): The Office of Academic Services and Retention sets deadlines each semester for requests for MLOAs. Please check the academic calendar for semester-specific deadlines: oasr@adelphi.edu
Submit all letters to the Office of Academic Services via email to: oasr@adelphi.edu

5. Requests for medical leaves will not be considered after the end of the 10th week of the semester. If appropriate, the grade of incomplete may be issued. Emergency situations occurring after the 10th week will be dealt with on a case by case basis.

6. If a medical leave is approved all current and future courses for which the student is registered will be dropped. The student will not be able to register until cleared by her/his health care provider and be readmitted to the University. See below for details.

Grading Policy:

Letter grades are awarded for all MSW courses with the exception of field instruction, which is graded Pass/Fail.

Each course syllabus outlines the instructor’s expectations and grading policy, which may include factors that may influence students’ final grades for that course (e.g., lateness of submission, class participation, attendance etc.). In addition, all instructors may use the following criteria to evaluate student’s assignments:

- Mastery of course content;
- Critical thinking;
- Organization of material;
- Writing ability;
- Integration and application of course content to social work; and
- Ability to conceptualize.

Incomplete Grades:

The incomplete designation “I” may be used by instructors only if a student has been excused from the completion of course requirements because of illness or other exceptional, compelling circumstances. To receive an incomplete grade, a contract must be completed by the instructor, stipulating the agreed-upon terms regarding completion of course requirements. Once the student completes these terms, the instructor submits a change of grade.

All incomplete grades require that the instructor complete an Incomplete Grade Contract in the CLASS system. The incomplete contract is electronically submitted to the Assistant Dean of Student Affairs for review and approval. Once electronically approved, the incomplete contract is forwarded via email to the student, the instructor, and the Assistant Dean of Student Affairs.

Incomplete grades can be given in a course at the discretion of the instructor. A contract is submitted by the instructor stipulating the terms under which the student must complete the work, including an agreed upon due date. The incomplete contract due date may not exceed a one year period. The incomplete will change to an F if the contract has not been completed.

Students who have received an incomplete in a prerequisite course, and are enrolled in the subsequent course, have until the second meeting of the subsequent course to remove the incomplete. If an incomplete in a prerequisite course is not removed by the second meeting, the student must withdraw from the course.

NOTE: Incomplete grades conferred to an extended student in field instruction are not subject to this policy

Field Instruction Course Grades:

Field instruction grades are conferred by the Faculty Field Liaison and are limited to a Grade of Pass, Fail, or Incomplete. Criteria for professional performance in field education are found in the MSW Field Education Manual.
Academic Standards:
Students are expected to adhere to the academic and professional standards of the AUSSW, which are stipulated in this handbook. See sections on requirements for graduation, academic probation, academic dishonesty, and rights and responsibility.

Academic Honesty | Dishonesty:
All Adelphi students are expected to abide by the University’s Code of Conduct. “Academic integrity occupies the very center of the educational enterprise. Adelphi University encourages academic excellence in an environment that promotes honesty, integrity, and fairness. All members of the University community are expected to exercise honesty and integrity in their academic work and interactions with members of the University community. Each member of the University community shares the responsibility for securing and respecting an environment conducive to academic integrity. Academic dishonesty will not be tolerated, and persons who breach academic integrity will be sanctioned in accordance with the section entitled Suspected Academic Dishonesty. Students are expected to be familiar with the Adelphi University Code of Conduct.

Filing for Graduation:
All students are required to file a graduation application form at the beginning of the last year of their program. (See the University Registrar Web site for specific dates.) The graduation application form can be obtained online at https://registrar.adelphi.edu/graduation/

Students must file this form online in order to receive a degree.

Note: If a student’s date of graduation changes, the student must file a new graduation application form for the new graduation date.

Clearance for Graduation: All students must complete the following in order to be cleared for graduation:

1. Complete all required courses, including all hours in field placement. Students who extend their field cannot graduate until their hours are completed;
2. Ensure the completion of all requirements for courses that have incomplete (I) grades;
3. Obtain a final grade-point average of 3.0 or above; and
4. Complete online Mandated Reporter Training (see below).
STUDENT LIFE AND PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

Students have a number of opportunities to participate in the larger school community by serving on various School of Social Work academic committees. The following committees welcome active student participation and are listed below:

Content Area (Sequence) Committees:

Responsible for reviewing all courses in their respective areas, refining course objectives and contents in relationship to the mission of the School and overall School curricula, and for preparing and suggesting to the Curriculum Committee new courses for consideration by the faculty. The content areas are:

- Human Behavior and Social Environment;
- Social Research;
- Social Welfare Policy and Organization;
- Social Work Practice; and
- Field Education.

Student Experience Committee:

The committee comprises various elements that make up the school community: students representing the BSW, MSW, and Ph.D. program at all sites, and members of the faculty and administration. The Committee meets monthly to examine and discuss issues that impact students as they proceed through their educational experience at Adelphi such as the school’s climate, pedagogy and inclusiveness. The committee also functions as an advisory board to bring issues raised and solutions to the attention of faculty and administrators. In the event that participation is prohibitive due to geographic distance from the Garden City campus, students may virtually participate.

Social Action Committee:

The Social Action Committee (SAC) is composed of faculty members, administrators and students who are actively committed to social justice and social change. It is chaired by two elected faculty members. Through its activities the SAC seeks to inform the SSW, Adelphi and larger communities of policies and issues related to vulnerable and oppressed populations, and to stimulate dialogue and action about these issues. These actions may include school-based or public forums, community partnerships, advocacy, and/or research activities.
NASW Code of Ethics:

The NASW Code of Ethics is a set of standards that guide the professional conduct of social workers. The 2021 update includes language that addresses the importance of professional self-care. Moreover, revisions to Cultural Competence standard provide more explicit guidance to social workers. All social workers should review the new text and affirm their commitment to abide by the Code of Ethics. Also available in Spanish.

The NASW Code of Ethics offers a set of values, principles and standards to guide decision-making and everyday professional conduct of social workers. It is relevant to all social workers and social work students regardless of their specific functions or settings.

Students are expected to adhere to the academic and professional standards that are set forth in the various policies and documents of the University, the School of Social Work, and the NASW Code of Ethics.

Course syllabi provide expectations pertaining to class attendance and punctuality, constructive participation, use of electronic devices, academic honesty, timely completion and submission of all assignments and more. Students are expected to comport themselves in class in a manner that is not disruptive to the class functioning (which may include distracting and disrespectful behaviors such as engaging in side conversations, disclosing confidential information, and indiscriminate use of electronic devices during class) and in accordance with the professional expectations listed in the values and principles expressed in the NASW Code of Ethics.

Classroom instructors may hold students accountable for their behaviors using a number of these interventions such as: giving reduced or failing grades for an assignment or entire course, assigning additional work, referring the student to supports such as the Writing Center, Student Counseling Center, their faculty advisor, or (if applicable) Office of Student Access, or requiring an apology or some other effort to repair a disrupted classroom process. Under the principle of academic freedom as operationalized in University policy, instructors have sole authority over students' grades. Instructors also have discretion not to allow a student to attend class. Instructors have the authority to “fail-withdraw” a student.
Academic Standards Committee (ASC)

It is important to note that the Academic Standards Committee reviews student compliance with the criteria, policies and procedures for both Academic and Professional Performance.

The Academic Standards Committee (ASC) is composed of social work faculty and administrators charged with developing academic and professional standards as well as conducting panel meetings to review reports related to students’ unethical and/or unprofessional behavior (professional performance) and recommending appropriate action to the dean.

The ASC has four roles:

1. Develops and recommends academic and professional standards for students in consultation with faculty;
2. Serves as a consultative committee to faculty field liaisons, classroom teachers, and academic advisers regarding professional conduct of students;
3. Conducts hearings and makes recommendations to the associate dean for academic affairs about M.S.W. students facing possible dismissal based on professional performance and conduct in field education or professional community; and
4. Serves as an appeal committee for M.S.W. students who challenge dismissal based on academic grades.

Reasons for referral to the ASC include, but are not limited to a report of poor academic performance, unethical and/or professional behavior by the students, submitted by the field instructor, the faculty field liaison, a classroom instructor or other persons relevant to the student’s educational program:

- Plagiarism and other academic dishonesty;
- Failure to maintain GPA as described under “Grading Policies;”
- Absence from field without notification;
- Breach of confidentiality;
- Inappropriate relationships and/or boundary problems with clients, staff or other students;
- Failure to disclose a potential conflict or threat;
- Impairment due to alcohol or drug abuse;
- Threatening behavior to clients or others;
- Behaviors that violate the NASW Code of Ethics;
- Failure or at risk for failing to meet field instruction criteria as outlined in the Field Education Manual; and
- Any action, behavior or decision that reflects poor judgment, lack of insight, and/or limited decision-making skills.
Policies and Procedures to Address Academic Standards

Suspected Academic Dishonesty:
All cases of suspected academic dishonesty will be treated seriously, and will launch a series of actions by course instructor, faculty adviser or faculty field liaison, the Assistant Dean of Student Affairs and the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs. Consistent with University policy, the course instructor, the Assistant Dean of Student Affairs and in consultation with the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs will decide whether the suspected dishonesty is of an egregious or non-egregious nature. Egregious dishonesty may include—but is not limited to—cheating on an exam, buying a paper, or stealing a portion or all of someone else’s paper. All second offenses are treated as egregious, regardless of the type of dishonesty.

Students who plagiarize may not realize they are engaging in plagiarism. Students are encouraged to take advantage of the library’s and the School of Social Work’s resources, the Writing Center, tutoring, uploading drafts to Turnitin (which instructors can set up on course websites), instructor office hours, and other resources for avoiding plagiarism.

Examples of classroom instructors 'options for enforcing these standards include but are not limited to giving reduced or failing grades for an assignment or entire course, assignment of additional work, referring the student to supports such as the Writing Center, Student Counseling Center, their faculty advisor, or (if applicable) Office of Student Access, or requiring an apology or some other effort to repair a disrupted classroom process. Under the doctrine of academic freedom as operationalized in University policy, instructors have sole authority over students’ grades. Instructors also have discretion not to allow a student to attend class. Instructors have the authority to “fail-withdraw” a student.

Instructors handle cases of academic dishonesty according to the established procedures of the MSW program, the School of Social Work, and Adelphi University. Generally, instructors will notify and attempt to meet with the student, apply course-specific sanctions (which are at their sole discretion), notify the student’s Academic Advisor, and make a report to the Office of Academic Affairs. The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs or the Assistant Dean of Student Affairs may apply additional sanctions based on the seriousness of the offense and previous incidents of academic dishonesty involving the student. The Assistant Dean of Student Affairs, in consultation with the Associate Dean for Academic may refer the case to the School’s Academic Standards Committee, procedures for which are described below.

Refer to: Adelphi University’s Policies and Guidelines on Academic Integrity for additional information, procedures, forms, and resources.
Policies and Procedures to Address Student Grievances and Appeal of Dismissal

Grade Appeals:
Students who believe their grades are incorrect or unfair should:

- Discuss their course work with the instructor in the first instance;
- Review with the course instructor the grading policies for the course;
- If students want to seek further redress about their grade, they should bring it to the attention of the Assistant Dean of Student Affairs;
- The Assistant Dean of Student Affairs may discuss the matter with the instructor to try to resolve the issues;
- The matter, if unresolved, may be referred to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs;
- If the issues remain unresolved, the student may request that the Office of Academic Services and Retention discuss the matter with the instructor; and
- The Associate Provost may choose to discuss the matter with the dean.

If the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, Dean, or Provost concludes that a grade was a result of arbitrary or capricious conduct on the part of the instructor, the student may be allowed to withdraw from the course. In the case of arbitrary or capricious conduct, the department or school may allow the substitution of another course to replace the course in question.

All disputes concerning the accuracy of a grade must be raised within one calendar year. Grade changes must first be signed by the instructor and then by the department chair and the appropriate dean before being submitted to the Registrar.

Academic Dismissal:
Any graduate student dismissed from the program for failure to maintain academic standards has the option to petition the School of Social Work Academic Standards Committee (ASC) for an exception to dismissal.

To appeal a dismissal due to low GPA, the student must submit appropriate documentation to support the appeal to the chair of the ASC via the office of the Assistant Dean of Student Affairs. All material must be sent within two weeks after receipt of the letter of dismissal. Students who are dismissed may appeal the dismissal decision once.
Academic Standards Committee Determination

Students have the right to appeal the decision of the Associate Dean in writing to the Dean of the School of Social Work on the basis of significant and relevant new information, a procedural error in the panel process, or an assertion that the process was biased or unfair, within five days upon receipt of the decision.

Once the request for an appeal is received by the Dean, a decision will be rendered on eligibility for appeal usually within ten days.

Should the Dean determine that the appeal has no grounds, the request for an appeal will be denied with no further appeal option.

If the Dean believes that appropriate grounds are present, he or she may either ask the original ASC panel to reconvene or ask the Chair of the ASC to form a new panel. The Dean may choose to uphold or reverse the decision with or without the convening of a panel depending on the merits of the case.

All aspects of the process and decision shall be kept confidential except to those who have an educational need to know the outcome.

Ad-Hoc Graduate Grievance Review Committee:

Consistent with the University protocol, the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs of the School of Social Work may, at her/his discretion, convene an ad-hoc Grievance Review Committee to address any MSW students' grievance pertaining to an academic or non-academic matter in the School of Social Work, should they choose to officially file a grievance. The ad-hoc grievance review committee will comprise the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and two to three social work faculty members. Upon receipt of the grievance, the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs will review it to determine the appropriate pathway for the complaint, guided by the Office of the Provost’s University Protocol for Student Complaints (detailed above), the School's grievance review policy, and also in accordance with the AAUP Collective Bargaining Agreement where applicable.

If the committee reviews a grievance and finds that the evidence is insufficient to make a recommendation or take action, a final decision is rendered and communicated to the student by the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs.

If the committee reviews a grievance and finds that the evidence supports making a recommendation or taking further action, the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs will attempt to resolve the matter further in consultation with the parties involved in the grievance.

If the situation cannot be resolved, the committee’s recommendations shall be sent to the Dean, the highest administrative officer of the School, for further action. Decisions by the Dean will be final.

Instructors may use the training and the certification towards the students 'final grade for the course. Students who are in Advanced Standing have to furnish proof of completion of the training in their undergraduate program. If they have not completed the training, they will be required to successfully complete the training in order to graduate. The training is provided for free by New York State. Upon successful completion of the course, students will receive an electronic copy of a certificate, which must be submitted to the Office of Academic Affairs of the School of Social Work (attention: Ms. Susan Rotondo (rotondo@adelphi.edu) in order to be cleared for graduation.
